It is strange what makes some women count on their fingers, nod their heads and mutter to themselves every time they hear of a wedding.

We have the Lord Roseberry Cigars in all the popular sizes. Special prices by the box, for sale only at the Monogram.

A handsome new sign hangs in front of the Lakeview postoffice, directing the public where they may find their letters. Calhoun is the artist.

The Examiner is in receipt of a complimentary ticket to attend the Harney County Fair at Burns, Sept. 22-27. The premium list and speed program is a good one.

For a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

The first delightful Fall rain of the season fell in Goose Lake Valley last Friday morning. It fell in gentle showers at intervals throughout the day, and everybody felt good as a result.

There is a great amount of building just now in Lakeview. The sawmills have orders away ahead and the Lakeview planing mill is taxed to its full capacity in turning out plane lumber.

We have secured the Agency for Lakeview for the Lawrence Barrett Cigar; they are a sweet, pleasant smoke. Whorton & Smith. 29

J. L. Cannon and family of New Pine Creek will spend the winter in Eureka, Cal. They started on the trip a few days ago. John Perkins and family left with them and will also spend the winter at Eureka.

Sisson, Cal., has ten cases of diphtheria and three deaths have occurred in the past week. The schools have been closed and it is thought the disease is now under control. Five deputy constables are enforcing strict quarantine measures.

The Smokers' Emporium—Beall's, where only the best grades of cigars can be found. For a fine smoke every body goes to Beall's. 18 tf

Owen McKendree was in from Klamath county this week and Thursday met sixteen gentlemen from Minnesota. The entire party will be located by Mr. McKendree on timber and homestead claims in Lake county.—Ashland Town Talk.

Outside cattle buyers are offering for cows with their calves $30 per head, this price we understand to be the highest figures paid, but some parties refuse to accept this very low price declaring that they have been offered nearly one-half of $30 for their calves.—Burns Items.

The Elk cigar is a new and comforting 5 cent smoke at the Monogram. Try them, and after saving up 10 of the Elk cigar wrappers return them to the Monogram and get an Elk cigar free. 38-2

From the Inyo Independent, published at Independence, Cal., we note that Rev. Richard Fysh, formerly of Lakeview, is becoming quite active in politics. At the Republican County convention held there recently, Mr. Fysh placed in nomination nearly ever man on the ticket.

Do you smoke? if so, try a Lawrence Barrett, none better. Whorton & Smith.

Perry Stanley, electrician and machinist, has installed a pumping plant and gasoline engine for Wm. K. Barry on that gentleman's lot on the hillside. The new apparatus works to perfection and is used to pump water into a large tank high up on the hillside. The water from this tank is to supply Hotel Oregon and the Barry stables. Mr. Stanley thoroughly understands his business.

New drugs, new and delightful perfumes, everything for the toilet—complete spring stock fresh and pure at Beall's drug store. 18 tf

The Examiner can honestly recommend the business men and women who advertise in its columns as people who conduct legitimate lines of business, and who will deal squarely with the public. They are not afraid to let you know what kind of goods they carry or how they conduct their business. Such people deserve the support of the public. If you want good goods and good treatment, give your patronage to any of the advertisers of The Examiner. Beware of cheap Johns.

For over half a century "Jesse Moore" Whisky has held its supremacy as the best, purest and most palatable. For sale by Janmerthal.

"There is one thing I want to impress upon the minds of the people of Oregon," said Congressman Tongue in Portland the other day, "and that is for them to be careful not to throw away their timber lands. They are fast becoming of great value, and the day is not far distant when their owners will be as independent as the millionaires. That day will be when the lumbering men are knocking at their door, ready and willing to pay any price for this timber.

The most delightfully blended whisky known to the human palate is "Jesse Moore"—the standard for over fifty years. Janmerthal keeps it.

The Interior Department is anxious to secure an impressive exhibit from Crater lake and Mount Rainier, together with other National parks, for the St. Louis Exposition, with a view to attracting public attention to these locations and giving the public generally a better idea of the natural wonders of these spots. A more definite idea is yet to be formed as to the nature of the exhibit to be made, aside from a collection of characteristic photographs as a feature. Suggestions are solicited from interested Oregon and Washington people.

Post & King have just received a big stock of everything first-class in the line of "wet goods." Their cellar is stored full of the best stock to be had on the coast. 20-tf

On the morning of September 15th, C. E. Cragle, who lives near Hornbrook, Cal., discovered a woman hanging to the limb of a tree not far from where he resides. The Coroner of Siskiyou was at once notified. The woman is elderly, and thus far is unknown, no one having been missed from Hornbrook, Klamath or any other place in the vicinity. The body was badly decomposed, and had been suspended for several days. The Yreka Journal says at first it was supposed to be a suicide, but later reports point to the suspicion of murder.

Drop into the Palace when you are in town and you will be entertained. 18-tf

As time progresses it is becoming painfully apparent to many sheep owners that they must own the most of their range or go out of the business. In the progress of affairs we will see larger proportions of our pasturage lands irrigated and everything possible done to make the land produce grass. Alfalfa and tame grasses will be introduced in favorable localities and every available spot of ground that will produce provender for sheep will be utilized in modern husbandry. The breeder of fine sheep is coming among us as well as the breeder of fine cattle and the industry will be pursued on more advanced principles.
