

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

The latest market report is to the effect that butter is still strong.

Business is picking up. Advertisers in The Examiner and pick up your part of it.

Glassware at Schminck's—beautiful and at reduced price. 38-2

John Sparks' Reno, Nevada. Hereford cattle took the best prizes at the Oregon State Fair.

Jack Simmons, formerly of Paisley, is working for J. B. Haggin at Staten Island, San Joaquin County, Cal.

Lawrence Barrett Cigar is the Talk of the Town.—Whorton & Smith.

Chas. Hughes of Klamath Falls recently sold a band of horses in Humboldt County, Cal., at good prices.

Misses Mae Miller and Lella Boyd visited friends in Ashland for a few days while enroute to Oakland, Cal.

Do you smoke? If so, try a Lawrence Barrett, none better. Whorton & Smith.

The mercury ran down to 14° above in Lakeview last Thursday night—5 degrees colder than the previous night.

L. C. Drake and Mrs. L. A. Ruch were married at Klamath Falls Sept. 24th. Bride and groom reside at Fort Klamath.

Look out for the "Pama" Cigar—for sale at Post & King.

Where is the man who was going to start that wood yard in Lakeview? Now is the time to fill a wood yard for the winter.

S. A. Shuck, aged 60, residing near Merrill, Klamath county, died on the 21st ult., from injuries received by falling from a wagon.

Beall has the biggest stock of scratch books and tablets in town. 38-3

Jack Embold lost his timber claim by the great forest fire in Polk county. Dr. Steiner's claim, in the same locality, had a close call.

Born—Klamath Falls, Oregon, Sept. 21, 1902, to the wife of B. Short, a daughter. Also to the wife of L. R. Stanosheck, Sept. 24th, a son.

We have been appointed Distributors for the Famous Roseberry Cigars. Ahlstrom Bros.

There is a great rush for the new mining discovery on Willow Creek, Malheur county. The country is staked off into claims for miles around.

Rev. J. B. Stark and wife of Paisley, were visiting Central Point last week. Mr. Stark preached morning and evening at the Central Point M. E. Church.

New Guns—rifles shotguns and pistols, latest makes, modern improvements at Schminck's. 38-2

Jack Borow spot two weeks at Musgraves hot spring resort and left there considerably relieved of rheumatism, and greatly benefited in many ways.

There is an abundance of mast all over the hillsides and range of Southern Oregon this fall, and old settlers say it indicates a hard winter, says the Ashland Tidings.

We have the Lord Roseberry Cigars in all the popular sizes. Special prices by the box; for sale only at the Monogram.

County Clerk Driscoll of Klamath, has received a new Fisher book typewriter, to do the work on public records. It is a great improvement on the old style of pen work.

Jess Hart of Vale is considered the best broncho rider in the state. At a broncho riding tournament in Baker City last week he successfully rode two of the worst bronchos in that country without a bridle.

For a bilious attack take Chamberlain's stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Judge L. F. Willits of Klamath Falls arrived in Ashland on the 22d ult., with his brother B. R. Willits, from Seattle. The latter is very much improved in health and is rapidly recovering the use of his limbs and the power of speech.

The Fall sales of wool opened in Red Bluff last week, a few small clips being sold—100 bags in all. The prices ranged from 10¢ to 10 1/2 cents. The market is expected to open up in earnest this week, as a large lot of wool is stored at the Bluffs.

When you come to town drop in at Post & King's and see the pictures and hear the beautiful music. Elegant bar and superb goods. 81-11

The Elk cigar is a new and comforting 5 cent smoke at the Monogram. Try them, and after saving up 10 of the Elk cigar wrappers return them to the Monogram and get an Elk cigar free. 38-2

The Big Bend Hot Spring resort, in the Burney Valley, Cal., neighborhood, has been sold and will probably be greatly improved. Like the Lakeview hot springs, the Big Bend spring waters have medicinal virtues, and the mud baths there are said to be a great pain reliever.

The Smokers' Emporium—Beall's, where only the best grades of cigars can be found. For a fine smoke everybody goes to Beall's. 18-11

A few years ago the post office department made a general ruling that in no case would postmasters be required to give mail to school children going or coming from school without a written order from their parents. The ruling applies to each time mail is asked for—a standing order for a school term will not suffice.

We have secured the Agency for Lakeview for the Lawrence Barrett Cigar; they are a sweet, pleasant smoke. Whorton & Smith. 29

Judge Benson, Court Reporter Calkins, District Attorney Reames and Deputy District Attorney Rutledge will leave here on the 4th of next month for Lakeview, where an adjourned session of the circuit court will be held. The regular term in Lakeview will begin on the third week in October.—Klamath Republican.

For a pleasant physic take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

"There is plenty of room at the top." Special Deputy W. T. Boyd seems to have taken the above motto for his guidance since his arrival in this city. During the past three weeks he has received over fifty applications for Klamath Lodge No. 176, A. O. U. W., and is still industriously engaged in getting more.—Yreka Journal.

"Jesse Moore" Whisky has been the Kentucky standard with which all others have been compared since 1851. It is the best. Ask Jammerthal.

Three of the old-time Klamath Indian families are camped at the head of the river near here and are engaged in fishing, making baskets and picking and drying plums. They are among the survivors who can show marks of service in the Modoc war and to whom still cling primitive customs and superstitions.—Klamath Republican.

We extend a cordial invitation to all of our friends and customers to try our Roseberry Havana cigars. Money back if not satisfactory. Ahlstrom Bros.

The Klamath Republican says that employees of the Midway Telephone Company (the Gates Co.) are now engaged in extending the line from Klamath Falls to Merrill. After completing that work, they will return to the Falls and run a line to Dairy and probably on East. Bonanza can secure connection by intersecting the main line.

It has been said that "all whisky is good." But "Jesse Moore" is better than others. Found at all first class places. Jammerthal sells it.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Giffrey, daughter of Henry M. Giffrey, Reading Clerk of the United States Senate, and niece of George L. Giffrey, former commissioner of Lake county, will occur at St. Margaret's Westminster Abbey, London, October 16th. On that day Miss Giffrey will wed Mr. Arthur Ward of New York. The honeymoon will be spent auto-mobiling in England.

Post & King have just received a big stock of everything first class in the line of "wet goods." Their cellar is stored full of the best stock to be had on the coast. 20-11

Roy Wright has caught four large salmon from the river at this place in the past week. He pulled one out yesterday that weighed 25 pounds. Lots of them are in the river he says. Salmon have not been this far up the Klamath before in ten or twelve years. We are told that dams in the lower waters have prevented the fish from running up, but are now enabled to do so by the aid of fish ladders constructed over the obstructions by order of the fish commission of California.—Klamath Republican.
