LAKEVIEW, OREGON, OCT. 2, 1902.

George D. Young, a young man of a prominent Southern Oregon family, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Hanna, at Grants Pass, on Sept 25th. Young was found guilty of forgery. He attempted to pass a check forged by himself on the First National Bank of Grants Pass. Young had forged the name of several men before but was allowed to go unpunished each time on account of the respectability of his parents and the mercy shown by his victims. His father and mother are esteemed Southern Oregon pioneers. When sentenced the young man broke down completely and had to be carried from the court room to his cell. He said that had he been allowed to go this time he would never forge another note. This should be a salutary lesson to other young men who are tempted to possess ill-gotten gains. Money gotten dishonestly never does a young man any good. George D. Young has broken the hearts of his parents, and placed the scarlet cross of the felon upon his brow because he was bent on being dishonest. Will others heed the warning that this boy's fate presents to view?

Harry Alberts of St. Louis was kissed by a pretty girl, who just nailed onto him without his consent, and Hobsonized him with a merry smack. Albert struck the fair kisser and gave her a black eye, was arrested and fined $20. Judge Silvever, who tried the case, held that a woman had a right to kiss a man if she wanted to, and the better looking the woman, the more right she has. The fine wasn't half punishment enough. He should have been sent to an asylum for the weakminded.

There is a movement on foot to divide Baker county by cutting off a slice of the eastern portion including the Panhandle district, which was annexed to Baker county two years ago, says the Oregonian. Huntington is to be the county seat of the new county if the scheme goes. A slice of Malheur county is to be added, so as to bring Huntington nearer the center of the proposed new county, thus making it the natural location for the county seat.

There is no reason for us Democrats to feel downcast.—The Hon. Jerry Simpson.

Us Democrats! So this wanderer is home again and this Pop has seen the error of his ways. How can any Democrat be downcast? Tom Johnson in his blood-red devil wagon whizzes along at the head of the show, Jerry Simpson on his bicycle brings up the rear. Hurrah for Tom! Hurrah for Jerry! Hurrah for Tom and Jerry.—New York Sun.

According to the abstract of votes cast for six candidates in the Oregon election June 2, 1902, the average Republican vote of the state, excepting Governor, was 36,595. The average Democratic vote was 31,422. George E. Chamberlain's plurality for Governor was 276; T. T. Geer, (R.) for United States Senator, 12,070; F. J. Dunbar, (R.) Secretary of State, 17,060; C. S. Moore, (R.) State Treasurer, 15,912.

Four inches of snow at Sumpter, Ore., last week. Sumpter always did have a rustling way about her—a desire to take the lead in everything. Now the great mining section leads off and presents the country with the first fall of the "beautifol", introducing old hoary winter in the first autumn month just to get there first.

The latest from Mrs. Waggoner who eloped from Chehalis, Washington, with Ben Merrill, is that she is sorry that she ever took up with the Merrill family. She was heartbroken at Seattle one day last week, and was crying bitterly for her little children. She will never do it again.

The Post Check Currency bill will come up again in the next session of Congress and should pass. It is a plan to have United States money so printed that the bills of small denominations can be converted into checks payable to order at any post office.

It will be a long time before the people consent to destroy the present prosperity even for the sake of destroying the trusts.

THE SOLDIERS' IDOL DEAD.

Father William McKinnon, the soldier priest of San Francisco, chaplain of the First California Volunteers in 1898, died of dysentery on Sept. 24th in the military hospital at Manila. The priest was the idol of the soldier boys in the Philippines. They loved him for his bravery and his purity of soul. He was the most prominent clergyman in the Philippines. He entered Manila under fire of the Spaniards and influenced Archbishop Nozaleda to modify his hostility. Later he organized the public schools and after the war he was appointed a chaplain in the regular army. He labored heroically during the cholera and smallpox epidemics, visiting the hospitals daily. He had been ailing for some months past, but persisted in continuing his work, which included ministrations to cholera victims. A military funeral was held in the Cathedral of Manila and the remains will be sent to his home in San Francisco by the first transport.

United States Senator Earl of Los Angeles, Cal., is now on the road to recovery, after lying at death's door for several weeks.

Alturas will have a baseball tournament next week for $150 provided three or more teams enter. If only two teams enter two games will be played for a purse of $75. All teams must belong to the district comprising the counties of Klamath and Lake in Oregon, and Siskiyou, Plumas, Sierra, Lassen and Modoc in California. No member of any baseball league will be permitted to participate in any game.

Miss Thomas, a young lady of Silver Lake, Washington, is in Lakeview to take the place of Jack Embody, to make all the necessary arrangements for the timber land parties that are sent here to file on timber by the Embody Company. Miss Thomas is from the district that was recently the scene of great forest fires, where many thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed and many lives lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Duke who, with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bernard, went to Fruitland, Washington, six weeks ago on a visit with relatives, returned home last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard stopped at Abert Lake on their way home where Tom shot ducks for a day. They arrived home last evening. All hands had an enjoyable trip, but are glad to get back to Lake County. Their many friends are glad to welcome them home.

The wedding of A. W. Whetstone and Miss Anna Morris was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Morris, last Sunday. There were few invited guests outside of the relatives of the bride. Rev. Lou Henderson of New Pine Creek said the words that made the couple happy. Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone were the recipients of a number of handsome and useful presents. A feast and a jolly time was had after the ceremony. The Examiner extends congratulations to the bride and groom.

Reynolds & Wingfield have bought the planing mill building and lease of the lot opposite S. F. Ahlstrom's saddlery, and will use it for a warehouse. Handley & Clendenen are building a large planing mill in South Lakeview, opposite the residence of C. E. Sherlock, and will soon have their machinery humming away in the new location. The planing mill is doing a rushing business and the energetic proprietors are not losing a minute's time in turning out all kinds of planed lumber and sash and blind work.

Messrs. Rohrabacher and Duren, the two gentlemen who have been doing a big business in Lake county for the Washington Life Insurance Co., for the past three months, have completed their work for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Rohrabacher will leave Sunday for Ashland, and Mr. Duren will remain for thirty days to deliver policies. These gentlemen succeeded in doing a big business for their company. They are reliable and courteous, and have the respect of the people of this county. They will return to Lake County next year.
