BUSTED BY GOD!

"Oregon, and busted, California to stay" is the sign that adorned a wagon that passed through town yesterday afternoon. The occupants of which there was a man and woman and a whole nest of little ones, had that "tired feeling" took and it was plainly seen, they have had enough of Oregon .-- Cottenwood Enterprise.

And still there are people moving out of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valteys every year declaring they have had all they wanted of a country that proall they wanted of a country that pro-duced a full crop once in ten years, a lin Lynde Hartt, R. A new illustrated magazine, with the taking title of "The Reader," is to be started in New York, next month. The Reader announces that it will provide the reading public of the United States with a literary magazine, at once enter taining, unprejudiced and authoritative. Further than this, it promises to be both good and popular, and not only will it contain such literary departments as reviews, bibliography, libraries and the drama, but its contents will also include short stories, poems and several popular literary articles of general interest each month. It is to be a 25 cent magazine and conducted on a large scale,

CLIPPING HORSES.

An Advocate Gives Reasons Why It Is the Proper Thing to Do.

Those who say that clipping the horse is a wrong practice because contrary to nature might take ground with an old physician who would not have his horse groomed in the winter for the same reason, says a writer in American Cultivator. As the horse was one of those with hair about six inches long, he certainly did not look very neat when on the street. He might also have objected to the harness, as the colts were not born with any arriage, or to wearing clothing himself because bables were not clothed when born. In fact, our whole life is a struggle to improve upon the processes of nature both in raising the natural ravage to a civilized human being and entry can elled. This puts things in a the wild beast to the domestic animal, serious condition for homesteaders not useful because subjected to the will of his master.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh be ing a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroy-ing the boundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers. that they offer One Hundred Do'lars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Addre s, F. J.
