

Trying Ordeal For the Girls in Tunis.

The marriageable girl in Tunis has a trying ordeal to go through after her betrothal to the man not of her choice, but whose choice she is.

As soon as the betrothal takes place she is taken to a room and there cooped up till the fattening process is concluded. Silver shackles are fastened round her wrists and ankles, and the task of her parents and future husband is to increase her bulk till her wrists and ankles fill up the shackles.

It takes a long time to do this as a rule, and sometimes it cannot be accomplished in spite of all efforts. It is open to the future husband to bargain or waive the conditions. In the case of a bachelor he is sure to see that the bracelets are not too large—that the girl is not too fat—but if he is betrothed into the marriage by his parents he is a great stickler for custom and the girls are the more quickly fattened up in Tunis.—Pictorial M.

Curing A Balking Horse.

An expert states that the vice of balking in horses is almost invariably caused by improper breaking and handling of the animal while young, says the Chicago Chronicle.

It is only high strung and ill-tempered horses that balk, and these are handled with more success by humoring and patience than by severe measures, which generally make matters worse. It is almost impossible to follow rules in a case of this sort. What will succeed in one case is useless in another, so that a driver must exercise good judgment—"horse sense"—in handling a case.

A very good treatment is to watch the animal closely in places where it would be likely to balk, and with the first sign of stopping the driver should say "Whoa," then get off and loosen or pretend to change the harness in some way; also take up a foot and tap the shoe with a stone. Spend a few moments leisurely in this way, and in nine cases out of ten the animal will forget its inclination to balk and will go on at the first bidding. It is also well to give a lump of sugar or a handful of oats or an apple. This will always produce better results than severe measures.

OIL KING OF TEXAS.

Ex-Governor Hogg a Picturesque and Forceful Character.

Former Governor James Stephen Hogg, who has become rich through the recent discovery of oilfields in Texas, is a lawyer of genuine ability and one of the most remarkable characters in the Lone Star State. Ex-Governor Hogg is now in London, where he is said to be making good headway in organizing an English oil trust to operate in the Beaumont oilfields.

The capital stock of the company, it is said, will be $15,000,000. It has been reported that Mr. Hogg is working in the interest of the Standard Oil company, but this has been vigorously denied by the ex-governor.

Since the first discovery of oil in Beaumont ex-Governor Hogg has been the most picturesque figure in the field.

EX-GOVERNOR HOGG OF TEXAS.

It is stated that he has cleared $8,000,000 by his operations. Mr. Hogg was born in Texas fifty-three years ago. As a boy he worked on a farm. Later he became a printer and finally took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar. He was four years attorney general of the state and in 1890 was elected governor and re-elected two years later.

Personally there is nothing attractive in Governor Hogg. He has fought his way to the front by sheer force and determination. He lacks the graces which charm the general run of men. Terribly in earnest about everything he undertakes, he has always been a

SORE NECK

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may come and go. Parents may not know what's the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

bitter opponent of the trusts, knowing this, his friends doubt the statement that he has allied his interests with Standard Oil. His character is without blemish. No taint of scandal has ever touched him. While he sometimes drinks a glass of light wine, he is not a drinking man. He does not smoke, and "Got darn" is the height of his profanity. Governor Hogg is a widower. He has several children, who are still at school.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Geo. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuvenating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age."

"I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so bad my mind showed signs of weakness. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Saved me from the insane asylum," Mrs. A. M. Helfner, of Jerico Springs, Mo., writes. "I was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself, could not sleep or rest, would even forget the names of my own children at times. I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and it helped me to get on my feet, and now I am perfectly well."
