

Additional Local

Rain fell here last Tuesday to the amount of .29 of an inch.

The Seattle team has signed "Toots" Somers, the California twirler, for 1903.

Miss Nellie Bauers returned last Friday from Jacksonville, where she was attending the convent.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burgun and children were up from their home below the state line, last Saturday, and remained until Sunday.

James Force of Talent, Jackson county, this state, has just celebrated his 102d birthday. He cast his first vote for John Quincy Adams for president.

Edward Sutton a successful young business man of Ashland and Miss Relna Rogers, an accomplished young lady of the same place, were married October 13th.

Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home. 37 ct.

The Lake County Teachers' Institute opened yesterday with an attendance of 17 teachers. A report of the Institute work will be given by The Examiner next week.

Alfred Holman, the gifted writer of the Oregonian, is writing some interesting articles that are to be found in Oregon's big journal pertaining to Klamath and Lake counties.

The family of J. L. Yaden, proprietor of the Klamath Falls-Lakeview stage line are on the way from their home in London, Ky., to take up a residence in Klamath Falls.

Several copies of the Northwest Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Astoria, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price. 11

Perry McDaniel went to Davis Creek last Sunday after his wife, who will accompany him to camp for a time. Mrs. McDaniel will soon return to her Eastern home for a visit with relatives.

A deer with a snow-white coat and pink eyes, was killed in Josephine county last week. Old hunters say it is the first white deer seen in Southern Oregon. The carcass was shipped to a Portland taxidermist to be mounted.

W. A. Sherlock, who advertised in The Examiner "three hundred tons of hay for sale" at the Thousand Spring ranch, Summer Lake, sold the lot to T. H. Sherlock. The latter now has seven hundred tons of hay for the winter.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42-11

The Express says that the hay crop in the Tule Lake Valley is said to be near 5000 tons of alfalfa, not counting the grain hay. The grain crop will be short although it is thought there will be wheat enough to supply the demand.

J. Mitchell-Innes, the Chewaucan cattle grower, left last Friday for Gazelle where the Innes & Kelsay beef will be held pending a sale. This is a fine bunch of beef and ought to bring big money. Mr. Innes will go to San Francisco from Gazelle.

F. O. Bunting sold another bunch of his registered Hereford bulls last Thursday. George M. Jones of Chewaucan bought eleven head of the youngsters. Last year Mr. Jones bought seven from Bunting and he likes them so well that he invests again this year.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular club room. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room. 42-11

Frank and George Reid went out to Little Chewaucan last week to entice the funny beauties to their flies, but the fish were not charmed and refused, in very great numbers, to be enticed. The boys caught enough to ent on the trip.

The Baptists of Oregon opened their seventeenth annual meeting at Roseburg on Oct. 14th. In 1886 when the state convention was organized, there were enrolled 73 churches with 3367 members. Now there are 156 churches with 9000 members in the state.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor," also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Mrs. J. E. McGarrey returned last Saturday evening from Surprise Valley. At Lake City she organized Mahogany Circle, Women of Woodcraft, and the new Circle starts off under favorable auspices, with a good membership, and is composed of some of Surprise Valley's best people.

J. W. Roosh, the gentleman from San Francisco who is in Lake county to shoot antelope, had all the enjoyment he expected out in the Warner section during the past two weeks. His party killed eleven antelope, and some fine buck antlers were taken home by Mr. Roosh as trophies of the hunt.

Dan P. Malloy left for Klamath Falls last Tuesday. It is understood that his marriage with Miss Lena Heldrich was to be solemnized yesterday at the Falls, after which he will return at once with his bride to Lakeview to take up their residence in the Joe Burrus home, which Mr. Malloy has leased.

Micajah Pinkney, treasurer of Modoc County, and the nominee of the Republicans for the same position at the coming election, was in Lakeview yesterday for the first time. Mr. Pinkney has faithfully performed the duties of his office and the voters of Modoc regardless of party have full confidence in him.

Charles Barcus and Mary Edith Green were married last Sunday, Oct. 19th, at the home of the bride in Paisley, Rev. J. B. Stark officiating. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Green, old residents of Paisley. The Examiner wishes Mr. and Mrs. Barcus much happiness and prosperity.

Colonel Cogswell arrived from Portland Monday morning to look after his legal business before the circuit court. He informs The Examiner that there is considerable activity in railroad matters about Portland and interest seems to be centered in the Columbia Southern building down into Southeastern Oregon.

Rev. A. Kingsley Glover, of the missionary department of the Episcopal Church, arrived here from Portland last week, and intended holding services in the Methodist Church last Sunday, but started on his return trip earlier than he expected to. Rev. Glover is an entertaining gentleman and impresses the people favorably.

J. W. Mikel says South Lakeview is coming to the front and building up rapidly. "We are going to make you up-town fellows ashamed of yourselves before long," said Mr. Mikel. "You needn't be surprised if we build a city hall and elect a town council down in our town—then look out for a removal of the county seat."

A new Equitable Insurance agent arrived in Lakeview last week and proceeded at once to make things lively. The new agent has entered into a co-partnership with J. L. Smith, the resident agent. The following notice explains the matter in detail: Born—in Lakeview, Oregon, Oct. 14, 1902, to the wife of J. L. Smith, a son.

The fine residence of E. C. Thurston, down the valley, has been turned over to painter Calhoun to finish up with the brush. This is probably the largest residence in Lake county. It is two-story and contains 17 rooms. The cost was in the neighborhood of $2,000. Will Dalrymple has been one of the crew of carpenters that has been working on the building for several weeks.

Cards will be issued next Saturday announcing the marriage on November 6th, at Paisley, of Mr. John Simmons and Mrs. Ida Hamilton. It will be no surprise to the many friends of this popular couple as Dame Rumor has for some time whispered the secret of their love and intended marriage. The wedding will take place at Hotel Paisley.

In an altercation between George Lee and Jack Martin, at Jordan Valley, two weeks ago, Lee shot and fatally wounded Martin. Martin died Tuesday afternoon. The Fall races were in progress in Jordan Valley at the time, Saturday being the last day. The two men became involved in a quarrel at the race track, and Martin started toward Lee, when the latter drew his pistol and fired, the bullet striking Martin in the abdomen. Lee surrendered himself after the shooting to the officers.

Dr. Asdell's Itinerary.
Dr. N. D. Asdell, who is associated with Dr. O. F. Demorest, of Lakeview, will be in Silver Lake from Oct. 14 to Nov. 6 or 7; will be in Summer Lake Nov. 8 to remain seven days; will be in Paisley Nov. 16 to stay until Dec. 1. 42-3

NEW GOODS

SUGAR
Just received a new car load.
For the next 30 days $6.25 per 100
for cash.

DRESS GOODS & CLOTHING

---

Florsheim Celebrated Shoes, New
Flour from Choice Wheat unmixed with other crops, Choice Bacon, etc

---

LIBERAL DISCOUNT FOR CASH

AYRES, WHITWORTH & AYERS

Thomas C. Little Dead.
Thomas C. Little, an old resident of Lake county, died at his West Side home last Friday night. For several weeks deceased suffered from a paralytic stroke, and his condition gradually became worse until death relieved him. Thos. C. Little was a native of Dixon, Illinois, and was a Grand Army man. He came to Lake county about 17 years ago. He was a man of over average ability, was a natural artist and portrait painter, and had numerous good traits of character. The funeral took place at the West Side cemetery on Saturday. He leaves a brother, Charles Little, who resides at the home on the West Side.

A Pite of a Kid.
What is said to be the smallest child ever born is now in an incubator at a hospital in New York. The child (a boy) weighs one pound seven ounces. It is fourteen inches in length. It was taken to Bellevue by John Stark, a carpenter, who carried it in a paper bag filled with cotton, and stated that his wife was too ill to care for the child. The doctors are greatly interested, and at once carried the infant wonder to the Post-Graduate hospital, where it was placed in an incubator.

At the Methodist Church Sunday.
On Sunday evening Oct. 26th, Rev. C. M. Smythe of the M. E. Church will preach on the following topic viz: "The Trusts as I see Them," text; Psalms 37:35. This sermon is especially prepared for the instruction of those who may be visiting the city through the term of Circuit Court. The Hon. Judge, Counsellors, Jurors, witnesses and all others visiting our city are invited to be present. Service 8:00 p. m. sharp.

Messrs. Handly & Clendenen, proprietors of the Lakeview Planing Mills, this week moved their machinery to the new building just constructed for their purpose in South Lakeview. The new mill is a commodious structure, and with an addition of up-to-date machinery that the firm is about to install the Lakeview Planing Mill will be a complete establishment. Messrs. Handly & Clendenen are always "up to their eyes" in work and are making a success of their business. They should succeed, for they are two of the hardest-worked men in the country. They will soon have one of the best plants in Eastern Oregon.

Election Notice.
Town of Lakeview, Lake County, Ore. Notice is hereby given, that on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, 1902, the election of Town Officers will be held in the office of the Town Recorder, which is located on the lot formerly owned by the Odd Fellows Lodge adjoining the fire bell tower, within said town. At said election there will be voted for, Mayor, four Councilmen, Recorder and Treasurer.
By order of the Town Council,
42-1 Chas. Umbach, Town Recorder.

BEALL'S DRUG STORE

LEE BEALL, Proprietor LAKEVIEW, OREGON.

We have constantly on hand a Fine and Complete Stock of Drugs, Chemicals, Perfumeries, Toilet Articles, Fancy Notions, Cigars, Etc., Etc.

* Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

PARK AND WASHINGTON, PORTLAND, OREGON

The school where thorough work is done; where the reason is always given; where confidence is developed; where bookkeeping is taught exactly as books are kept in business; where shorthand is made easy; where penmanship is at its best; where hundreds of bookkeepers and stenographers have been educated for success in life; where thousands more will be. Open all the year. Catalogue free.

A. P. ARMSTRONG, LL. B., PRINCIPAL

J. E. Bernard & Son

AGENCY FOR ACORN STOVES AND RANGES. . . . . Over 100,000 in use.

DEALERS IN

Hardware, Stoves, Farm Implements,
And Tinware . . . . . Wagons and Vehicles.

Lakeview, Oregon, July 10, 1902

Dear Friends:

We have been so busy the last two weeks that we haven't had time to write you, nevertheless we will try and supply your wants. We have had over 47,000 lbs of freight arrive in the last two weeks and more coming. We expect to hear of the shipment of our Wagons and Buggies at any time. Would invite you to call and see them when they arrive. we have thirty Cook Stoves and ranges in this lot of freight. We can furnish you Stoves ranging in price from $13.50 to $75.00. Call and see us.

Resp. yours,
J. E. BERNARD & SON.