The Lake City flouring mill, owned by N. Dry, was sold on Oct. 11th to Mrs. Hotchkiss of Davis Creek. This mill plant is one of the finest in the country. A recent visitor at Lake City informs us that Mr. and Mrs. N. Dry have a very fine home and garden spot at that place. They grow the finest of everything in the garden line including peppers, and celery, and in their orchard, grapes and very fine plums and other fruits. Another fine orchard there surrounds the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, where as fine fruit as ever went to the World's Fair is grown. They also have a fine aviary, and furnish an excellent quality of honey.

N. Dry, who recently sold his flouring mill at Lake City to Mrs. Hotchkiss of Davis Creek, will soon leave for the East. The price paid for the mill was $6975. The dry home was purchased by Mrs. J. R. Cook, for $1,200. O. Ratcliffe will run the mill for Mrs. Hotchkiss.

It is said that the very finest of fruit is falling from the trees in Cedarville. Among those who have fine orchards are Judge and Mrs. Long. We have seen and eaten some simple pears and apples from the Long orchard, and must admit that this fruit cannot be surpassed on the Pacific Coast. Surprise Valley ought to have a branch railroad to carry the fruit to market.

The lake country in Oregon, embracing Klamath and Lake counties, is one of the few remaining spots on earth where rapid growth and quick rise in values will make fortunes for investors in a short time. To its present condition it has developed slowly, but the introduction of railroads, now coming, places the country on the eve of a gigantic growth, says the Klamath Republican. A few more cities will yet be built in the United States and those who have reason to express themselves declare that Klamath Falls will be among the few.

The telephone line had reached within two or three miles of Merrill the first of the week when work had to be suspended for a few days on account of delay in getting the necessary poles. However, Merrill will have telephone communication with the outside world before the end of the week. The next move on the part of the Midway Company will be to extend the line to Bonanza. It will not go to Lakeview, as we understand, unless the people of that town make an effort to induce the company to build there.—Klamath Republican.

Everett B. Brown of Grants Pass has been committed to the state asylum for the insane. Brown is 35 years of age, married and has three children. He served as a soldier in the Philippines, and was recently appointed mail weigher on the O. R. & N line between Portland and Pocatello. There was some pilfering on the run that was traced to Brown. He admitted that he had taken 25 cents in silver and 25 cents in stamps from letters, but stated that he was suffering under a temporary oblation of the mind when the deed was committed. He was allowed to go, and went violently insane.

Whoever the party is who owns the poor disabled horse that is let to suffer and die on the road this side of the hot spring ranch, ought to show at least a spark of humanity by either taking care of the animal or putting it out of its misery with a pistol ball. The animal has been frightfully cut by barb wire and is a miserable looking object. Whoever the owner is, The Examiner hopes that he is ignorant of the condition of this poor animal. We cannot believe that there is a man living in this community who would be so heartless and brutal as to knowingly treat a dumb brute like this one is being treated.
