

You can bring your money here and get the Best for your Dollars.

When storekeepers charge less for their goods than I do—I emphatically say that the goods are not as good as mine. When you pay more than I charge you are paying too much. I have been in business long enough to know what a legitimate profit should be.

Here you pay for individual store keeping. No combination or partnership prices.

One single profit only, and that, always the lowest.

If you are not in possession of my Price list ask for one. It will save you Dollars in course of a short time.

I will supply you with everything at money saving Prices.

Two Popular Young People Wedded.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Malloy are now at home, at their residence in Lakeview. The Examiner was not sufficiently informed last week of the happy event which joined for life the hearts and hands of the two well known and popular young people, to give an extended account of the wedding.

The groom is one of our prosperous woolgrowers, a man who understands thoroughly the business he is engaged in, and who has lived here nearly all his life. He is known by nearly everybody in Lake county and probably no man in the county has more friends.

The bride is a charming young woman, who formerly lived in Lakeview, but who for the past year has been residing with her mother at Klamath Falls. She was formerly Miss Lena Heidrich and is known and highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Those who know her best speak of her as a most lovable woman whose graces and personality command respect and admiration. She has the attributes of a good wife and everybody bespeaks a happy life for Mr. and Mrs. Malloy.

Judge Baldwin of Klamath Falls officiated at the marriage which occurred at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. E. Heidrich, at Klamath's capital on Sunday evening, Oct. 26th. Only relatives and a few friends of the bride witnessed the ceremony.

The people of Lakeview generally will wish Mr. and Mrs. Malloy much happiness and good fortune, in which wish The Examiner joins most heartily. The Klamath county papers extend compliments to the bride in the following manner:

Klamath Republican—The bride is one of the estimable young ladies of this place and has many friends and well-wishers.

Klamath Express.—The bride is a charming and handsome young lady and a favorite among the young people of this place and also in social circles. The groom is an influential stockman of Lake county, where he has resided for many years and is highly spoken of by business men in that section. The happy couple left on the stage Monday morning for their future home at Lakeview.

The Express extends congratulations with their many friends for a long and happy married life.

In honor of the wedded couple a very pleasant social hop was given at the Falls. It was a farewell party for the popular bride.

Renters Take Notice.

Those who are renting or leasing lands belonging to the California & Oregon Road Company in Lake County will please pay rent money into the Bank of Lakeview, W. H. Sams, Agent, 41-tf

Dr Asdell's Itinerary.

Dr. N. D. Asdell, who is associated with Dr. O. E. Demorest, of Lakeview, will be in Silver Lake from Oct. 14 to Nov. 6 or 7; will be in Summer Lake Nov. 8 to remain seven days; will be in Paisley Nov. 16 to stay until Dec. 1, 42-3

John W. Easter Dead.

John W. Easter died in San Francisco Friday night, Oct. 31, 1902, as he sat in his easy chair chatting pleasantly with his daughter, Miss Nettie Easter. He was a native of England, aged 79 years. His wife and two other daughters, May and Laura were visiting in San Rafael at the time he died. He also leaves three sons, G. Sherman Easter of Lakeview, J. W. Easter of Welsch, Idaho, and George W. Easter of Humboldt county, Cal. G. Sherman Easter received the sad news by wire last Sunday.

E. E. Fitch, the landlord at old Bly, was a business visitor here this week. Mr. Fitch says that business about Bly is looking up, and he is enjoying a lucrative patronage. He was here after a load of winter supplies.

Col. Cogswell left for Klamath county on Monday, where he has an important law case on hand for the Southern Pacific railroad company. Klamath county has brought suit against the railroad company for taxes.

LOST—In Lakeview, Oct. 20th, between Bailey & Massingill's store and the residence of Eldon Woodcock, a plain gold band ring. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the ring at this office. 44-1

It is said that another party could have made more money out of the contract to dip the pipe for the Lakeview Water Company's plant, than Loren Bailey. Loren did not have a corner on the asphalt, and consequently may lose on the job.

J. A. Anderson, the Drews Gap farmer, was in town last Saturday to order one of those air ships that Perry Stanley is going to put on the market. Our friend Anderson says it is too slow pegging along with the "old bays" between here and the Gap.

Mr. Baker was notified Tuesday morning to be present at the meeting of the Supreme Court at Salem, Oregon, on the 5th, as the case of McCull vs. Porter, on appeal from Lake county, would come up at that time. He however, succeeded in having the case postponed to Nov. 13.—Plaindealer.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42-tf

The big band of bucks brought here by the agents of the Prineville Land and Livestock Company will be removed in a few days from the pasture at the Venator ranch to pasture two miles west of Lakeview. About the 15th inst. all of these bucks that are not sold will be started back to Prineville. This is a fine opportunity for sheepmen of this county to make their purchases of royal bred bucks before their removal. Those who contemplate purchasing should remember that the time is short. See O'Neil and Vanderpool at once.
