

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

C. W. Dent came over from Warner Friday.
Wm. Dalglish was over from Adel last week.
Perry McDaniel was over from Dry Creek last week.
J. M. Groden was a Summer Lake visitor last week.
Kentucky Favorite Whisky—mildest and best. Physicians recommend it. Post & King. If.
T. B. Wakefield and C. S. Kafader were over from Warner last week.
Get a fine hot bath (porcelain tub), a clean shave and any style hair cut at Frank D. Smith's, next door to Bank. If Aden McCall brought down a load of salt from the McCall Salt Marsh at Silver Lake last week. He loaded back with flour.
See Mrs. F. D. Smith if you wish to order first-class wraps and tailored goods. Agent for the famous Edward B. Grossman Co., Chicago. 43-44
"You shouldn't judge a man by the cigars he gives you," remarked the philosopher. "Some one may have given them to him.
Quite a delegation of Adel people were in town last week. Among them were C. A. Cadderwood, Dwight Fosket, John Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Messner.
Whisky—
More whisky—
"Jesse Moore" Whisky—the best. For sale by Jammerthal.
Al Barnum started to the desert last week with the Barnum Bros' sheep. The band contained 3200 head, rather two many sheep for one man to handle.
If you knew that "Jesse Moore" Whisky was the best and purest on earth you'd have no other. It is the best, but we cannot prove it except you try it. Try it. See Jammerthal.
It is said that a move is on foot to have all mail reach Lakeview over the southern route. This is thought to be the best winter route for Oregon mails, says the Post.
Lee Beall, the druggist, has just received ten thousand pounds of new drugs, toilet articles and druggists' sundries. If you want the purest, latest and best, Beall's is the place to get it. 44
C. S. Palmerlee of Dry Valley was in town last week with another load of his fine creamy butter, which he makes for Bailey & Mussegill. There is a great demand for his butter, and it is always in the consumers hands before he leaves town.
Last week the Boston wool market reported that wool had advanced 1 cent per pound since the election. Lake county wool is worth about 15 cents now, but it has all been sold. If we could have another election before next shearing time wool would be worth 16 or 17 cents.
There has been considerable home-stending in Oregon during the past year as shown by returns from the several land districts. In the Burns district 272 original homestead entries were filed, of 28,984 acres; La Grande, 131 homesteads of 136,053 acres; Lakeview, 278 homesteads of 41,351 acres; Oregon City, 493 homesteads of 72,008 acres; Roseburg, 928 homesteads of 133,990 acres; and The Dalles, 1674 homesteads of 256,096 acres.
The Paisley boy element attempted to charivari Johnny Simmons last week when Johnny came out and handing them $2 told them to go home and go to bed. Charley Innes learning of the transaction raised Johnny's bet and told the boys to do their best. The boys saw it good thing and paced back and forth from Johnny to Charley reporting each time that the other man had raised the bet, until they were about $10 to the good. There is no flies on the Paisley boy if he don't wear socks.
The Best Remedy for Croup
[From the Archimedes, Klamath Falls, Daily Guide.]
This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost in case of croup as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old fashioned remedy for croup, known as hives syrup and tolu, but some modern mother says that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears, and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale at Beall's Drug Store.

What's This! What's This!!

The usually reliable (?) Chewaucan Post went into a trance last week and accused Life Conn of witnessing one of the editor's dreams. Read the following and reflect:
"Life Conn reported the hardest wind storm while here last Friday evening on his return from Silver Lake that we have heard of in this part of Oregon. Only for Mr. Conn's veracity grave doubts would be entertained as to the correctness of the statement. He said that while he was coming along the shore of Silver Lake a flock of geese were feeding near the road and as he approached them they became frightened and raised to fly. They attempted to fly against the wind and when they reached the height of about 100 feet a heavy gust of wind struck them, completely unbalanced them and they fluttered around in the air like so many dead leaves till they fell to the ground. Conn was so near them that he got out and picked up all he wanted before the geese had time to recover sufficient strength to get out of his way.
Stepped Against a Hot Stove.
A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic ointment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale at Beall's Drug Store.

ROYAL ROBES.

It has been settled beyond a doubt that King Leopold will visit the St. Louis exposition. He will be the first monarch of Europe to set foot on American soil.

Queen Maria Pia of Portugal has just ordered from Paris a twelve horsepower automobile, with which she intends to make extensive tours through the country.

Princess Victoria, the only unmarried daughter of King Edward, is understood to love where she may not wed and therefore will probably end her days in spinsterhood.

The new king of Saxony is chiefly known for his military tastes and considerate treatment of private soldiers. He was commander for thirty years of the Twelfth army corps, which is Saxony's contingent to the imperial armies.

The empress dowager of China intends establishing a girls' school in the palace at Peking. Ten daughters of princes will be the students. A female teacher will instruct them in English. The reason is that the empress needs interpreters when entertaining the wives of foreign ministers.

CURTAIN CALLS.

Wilson Barrett is to have a play by his son, Arthur Barrett.

Lester Leorgan is leading man with the Melville Baldwin stock company of New Orleans.

The prolific Theodore Kremer is preparing for production "The Triumph of an Empress."

Mrs. Robert Osborn has engaged Barr McIntosh to play an important role of parts in her stock company.

Low Dockstader will next year head a troupe of 100 performers, under the management of Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger.

Henry Miller is to appear this season as an independent star, portraying the famous actor Melian in a drama of the Cromwellian period.

George Arliss' farce called "There and Back" will be acted in this country by an American cast. Hawtrey tried it last season in London.

Mrs. John Wood's role in the new Drury Lane melodrama will be that of a circus strong woman reduced by accident to the necessity of training parrots.

Odd Cure For Rheumatism.

The gypsies have an odd cure for rheumatism, and as it is cheap and utterly harmless it will not hurt to try it. They carry a good sized piece of limestone in the pocket and warrant it to cure the worst cases.

Mildew Stains.

Mildew stains may easily be removed by wetting and soaping the spot, covering it with powdered chalk and then putting it in the sun to bleach. Dump it from time to time as it dries and then wash it in the usual manner with soap and water. If necessary, repeat the process.
