Connoisseurs of perfect goods appreciate "Jesse Moore" Whisky for its purity and delightful flavor. It is without a peer. For sale by Jammertal.

Jim McShane, foreman of Wm. Harvey's sheep came down from Summer Lake last week after a band of sheep.

The Oregon Semi-Weekly Journal, a Democratic newspaper, ever fair and always free, 164 copies in one year for only $1.50 to any address. The Journal, P. O. Box 121, Portland, Or.

James E. Harper and Miss Ruby Hartlerode are to be married at Paisley to-day, Thanksgiving. The ceremony will be held in the church.

The next bottle of whisky you buy resolve to try the "Jesse Moore." You've heard it was the best; prove it by practical test. For sale by Jammertal.

Bob Smith of New Pine Creek, who has been working at Silver Lake for the past two years was in Lakeview last week on his way home.

Lee Beall, the druggist, has just received an thousand pounds of new drugs, toilet articles and druggists' sundries. If you want the purest, latest and best, Beall's is the place to get it.

M. Cullken, a cruiser in the timber near Silver Lake, has suspended operations for the season, and is spending a few days in Lakeview.

Geo. Hankins had two arks made here last week to be used on the desert this winter. They are like two houses on wheels and he runs them tandem fashion.

Oregon Daily Journal, a Democratic daily newspaper, eight to 20 pages, $4 a year, 22 for six months. The Journal is a newspaper. Send in your subscription. Interest your neighbor in The Journal. Address The Journal, Box 121, Portland, Or.

Isn't it about time some one was making arrangements for the annual masquerade ball on Christmas. It takes some time to make the necessary preparations for suits, etc.

Steve Gaylord met with a painful accident Monday evening in his blacksmith shop while shoeing a horse, says the Post. There were several horses in the shop to be shod and while working on one another kicked him on the leg, fracturing the bone just below the knee.

A party of engineers at work on the preliminary survey of the Salt Lake-Cos Bay railroad is working about twelve miles southeast of the stage station on the Silver Lake road. The crew is working rapidly and endeavoring to find an easy outlet along the base of the Paulina mountains.—Bend Echo.

It is becoming evident that Paisley is on the proposed route of the Great Central railroad from Cos Bay to Salt Lake. A prominent visitor here a few days ago was heard to say that we might expect to see the power of the Cheyenne river harnessed and turning the wheels of factories before many years pass by says the Post. The power is here, gentlemen, bring on your factories.

Edward Everett Young, the Portland Oregonian's special correspondent, has been spending several days at Bend and in the valley of the Deschutes river where he has made a personal inspection of the private irrigation companies' work. Crook county residents will be interested in the articles which Mr. Young will write the first of the week, and the conclusions he has drawn after going over the field will in all probability have a tendency to throw considerable light on the work of the irrigation enterprises established here.—Bend Echo.

Etta Horton was received at the Oregon penitentiary at Salem, Thursday, on a year's sentence from Harney county on the conviction of crime of adultery. There are now three women in the penitentiary; Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Minnie Crockett, serving a life sentence for murder in Umatilla county, and Mrs. Rose Carlisle, serving a nine-year sentence for arson in Jackson county.

P. M. Kershaw arrived home Wednesday from an extended business trip in Eastern Oregon. He drove in by team, returning by way of Montague. He reports the ground covered with snow on the summit of the Siskiyon mountains, over which he crossed in coming to Medford. Eastern Oregon he reports very prosperous and steadily gaining in population and wealth.—Medford Success.

Edwin Mays, an attorney of Portland, was in Lakeview last Friday, going on to Portland Saturday via the Western stage. Mr. Mays came down through the northern part of the county in company with Geo. S. Nickerson where they have been making some important investigations. Nothing was given for publication but the nature of his visit will no doubt be known in a short time.

W. P. Heryford, J. D. Heryford and F. M. Green have filed articles of incorporation under the name of the Heryford Land & Cattle Co. The capital stock is $110,000 divided into 1100 shares of the par value of $100. The new corporation will deal principally in cattle, but do not confine themselves to that kind of stock. The Heryford Bros. are well known cattle growers of Lake county, and Mr. Green has had long experience in the stock business in this county, having for the past few years been foreman and manager of the Cox & Clark Cattle ranches in Lake and Modoc counties.
