

Additional Local

J. Q. Adams stopped over in Alturas Tuesday night. "Jack," as he is well known, was on his way to the lower country with a band of about 75 head of fine geldings and will spend the winter with them in the vicinity of Tehama or Chico. As the market for first class horses is good, Jack will no doubt find ready sale.—Plaindealer.

There are about 500 head of cattle in this immediate vicinity yet unsold says the Plaindealer. They belong to Thos. Kemble, John Dereyan, J. P. Hall, Howard Porter, John Wall, and Wm. Armstrong. There are other small bunches within a radius of 20 miles that would make out quite a respectable drive. The cattle are all being fed and the owners say they have feed to last until spring.

John Madden, the defaulting treasurer of Modoc County, has been discovered again. He is now cooking on a steamer plying between Alaska and Pacific Coast points. It will take him a long time to make up that large shortage on a cook's salary.

Madden has also been reported dead a great many times, and it will soon be time that he was reported "still dead."

Burton L. Cunningham is expected home within a few days, says the Express. He has been at the head of Rogue river photographing wild animals and scenery, having been engaged to do this work by eastern publications. On this trip Mr. Cunningham secured a couple of photographs of bear, several deer and numerous other animals. He will soon visit Crater lake on the same work.

A. H. Fisher having sold his 225 acre ranch in Summer Lake, including the stock, hay, machinery, etc., to Harris Bros., for $6,000, left Lakeview Monday in company with his brother Marshal Fisher, for Ashland. Mr. Fisher's family preceded him a few weeks, and they will locate either in Ashland, Medford or Jacksonville for the winter, and possibly remain there permanently. Both gentlemen go for their health.

A Bonanza correspondent of the Klamath Express says J. E. Stephen of Minnesota, who is here on timber land business met with quite a painful accident last Thursday at Shone McKendree's place. He was running down hill when he fell down and struck his head on a rock, bruising and cutting his forehead so he is laid up for repairs. Probably he had wheels in his head and needs the attention of a good watchmaker.

Sam C. Crossler came up from Alturas last Saturday. He brought Mrs. McCarrey and sister, Miss Keating as far as Pine Creek. Mr. Crossler filed on a piece of timber land in the Big Valley country while here. He says his father, Hon. W. T. Crossler, whose life was dispaired of for a long period, is now up and around and is as healthy and hearty as ever. His many Lake county friends are very glad to learn of his recovery.

E. B. Brenner came in from Silver Lake Thursday with a four-horse team for a load of supplies, and Monday with his wife, who had been on a visit to her parents at Myrtle Creek, he left for the 200 mile trip to his home, going by the Rogue river road. While in the city Mr. Brenner was the guest of his cousin, Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Brenner stated that he always bought his supplies in Medford, doing better there than at any other trading point.—Medford Success.

The 200 head of horses purchased in Lake County by parties in Los Angeles and Mexico City as reported in The Examiner a few weeks ago, came nearly being drowned last week, while crossing a 200 foot bridge between Barney and Cayton valleys, the structure gave away and the horses were precipitated into Pitt river. Fortunately all swam ashore but three, and the loss was remarkably small for such a disaster.

The Exposition is the name of a new magazine published at Portland and is ably edited by Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered. It is devoted to the Lewis & Clark Centennial, American Pacific Exposition and Oriental Fair, to be held at Portland in 1905. Mrs. Weathered is certainly capable of conducting a magazine of this nature, having had varied experience in newspaper and magazine writing, and was one of the Oregon Commissioners at the Buffalo and Charlston Expositions. She has already done much to advertise Oregon.

The Oregon Irrigation meeting held in Portland last week was a big success. Lake County was ably represented by C. A. Cogswell. Virgil Conn of Paisley was not notified in time to be in attendance. Congressman Tongue was there, and has arranged to meet three government engineers next spring and make a thorough examination of irrigation projects in the First Congressional District, especially in Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake counties.

Constable W. H. Musselman arrived from Fort Klamath Saturday evening, says the Republican, having in custody Wm. Barclay, a half-breed who was given into the hands of the sheriff to lay out, in the county jail, a fine of $90. Last Thursday Barclay and another halfbreed by the name of Donald McKay pounded Fred Larson and otherwise disturbed the peace of Ft. Klamath. They were arrested and taken before Justice Emery who fined them $60 apiece. McKay paid his fine, but Barclay preferred to go to jail.

Two marriage licenses were issued at the Clerk's office Monday for parties at Paisley. A double wedding will be performed at the Paisley church at high noon to-day. The marriage of James E. Harper and Ruby E. Hartlede has been announced, but that of Ralph Taber and Belle Linville is to be a surprise. They strolled down to Lakeview and secured a license Monday and will attend the other wedding, and at a given time will stand up and be married to the surprise of all present.

Chas. Umbach started yesterday for a three month's visit to his old home in Germany. He goes via San Francisco, and then to New York where he boards the palatial steamship Deutschland, and goes direct to Hamburg, Germany. His father and mother who are quite aged, being 72 and 76 respectively, and whom he has not seen since he left there 20 years ago, are anxiously awaiting his arrival. On his return he will stop at London and Liverpool, and will cross the Irish Channel to Dublin, and on to Queenstown. At Newmarket he will visit Mike Barry, one of the famous fishmen who came to Lake county and made enough money in the sheep business to retire to the old sod and live in peace and plenty.

The Washington correspondent of the Oregonian says that although both Secretary Hitchcock and Land Commissioner Hermann strongly favor and recommend the repeal or radical modification of the timber and stone act, neither entertains much hope that Congress will interfere with the objectionable law, at the coming short session. The injustice of the timber and stone act is admitted on all sides, and each succeeding month but serves to demonstrate that timber interests are making a last grand rust upon the public timber. It is estimated at the department that if the present rate of entry under this law shall continue unabated, and the department shall be found without means to check it, that the last acre of unreserved Government timber land will have passed to private ownership within a very few years.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1903 Almanac.

To say that this splendid work of science and art is finer and better than ever, is stating it mildly. The demand for it is far beyond all previous years. To say that such results reaching through THIRTY YEARS are not based upon sound sense and usefulness, is an insult to the intelligence of the millions. Prof. Hicks, through this great Almanac, and his famous family and scientific journal, WORD AND WORKS, is doing a work for the whole people not approached by any other man or publication. A fair test will prove this to any reasonable person. Added to the most luminous course in astronomy for 1903, forecasts of storms and weather are given, as never before, for every day in the year, all charmingly illustrated with nearly two hundred engravings. The price of single Almanac, including postage and mailing, is THIRTY CENTS. WORD AND WORKS with the Almanac is $1.00 a year. Write to WORD AND WORKS PUBLISHING CO., 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., and prove to yourself their great value.
