The local telephone company have completed their line from Lakeview to Pine Creek and it is now in first-class working order. This line will be a great convenience to residents along the line between the two points.

Nearly all of Lake County's offices are now in the hands of deputies, since the exodus of our officers to Jacksonville. J. W. Tucker is now deputy sheriff, W. S. Blair, deputy clerk and D. B. Dunn, deputy treasurer.

Sam L. Walker who is charged with hitting J. Daylover the head with a billiard cue at Bonanza, waived examination and was bound over till the June term of Circuit Court at Klamath Falls, with bonds at $5,000.

Ladies fur top Bomees, all kid foxed, plain and patent leather tips, formerly sold for $1.75, $2.00 and $2.25. Now selling for $1.50 a pair. They are real bargains and will make useful Christmas presents.

A country editor writing on trusts says that the country newspaper combine is the biggest trust on earth. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting.

Frank Hutchins who has been working at the Hawkins & Rhinehart saw mill met with a very severe accident last week. While handling an ax he accidentally struck his foot, the blade going into the bone, making a very bad cut.

Dick Wilcox is having a skylight put in the post-office building, which will enable Deputy Ephie Miller to discover the dead letters that come along in the live mail matter. The Monogram has also had a skylight put in their building.

We are going to clean out our line of holiday goods this year. The only thing that will do it is close prices. If you want to buy, come and let us convince that we are no relation to Ananias.

Robert Williamson a horseman who has been driving horses from Klamath county to Ashland, was arrested at the latter place last week on an information filed by District Attorney Reames, charging him with horse stealing.

Mrs. W. A. Bagley, who moved to Ashland with her children recently from Paisley, has purchased the ten acre tract of Mrs. Poe half a mile below the normal school, says the Ashland Record. She went to Igerna today to buy the lumber.

The New Era says "the new board of supervisors will be Republican by one vote. They are all good men, however, and you could hardly tell them from good democrats." The Examiner learns that the "good democrats" are all dead in Modoc.

Not the finest lot of holiday goods ever manufactured. If we said that you would say we lied. But it comes very near being the finest line ever displayed in Lakeview. If you don't believe it, come and see. Lee Beall.

The Klamath Falls orchestra entertained some of the citizens of Merrill Tuesday evening by telephone, says the Express. They attached a gramophone horn to the transmitter here and had the same at Merrill and the people at that place say the music could be plainly heard.

A council is being held today at the Klamath Agency between Indians of the Klamath reservation and some Indian representatives from the Indian Territory to see whether it is agreeable to let the forty odd Modoc's who were sent to the Territory shortly after the Modoc war, return to the Klamath reservation and obtain allotments of land.—Klamath Express.

S. C. Beach, of Portland, who has been making a hurried business trip to San Francisco, stopped over on his return last night to visit his mother, Mrs. S. M. Beach says the Ashland Tidings. He is now a member of the printing firm of Mann, Abbott & Beach.

W. K. Barry informs The Examiner that he contemplates the erection of a 50-room, three story brick hotel in the Spring to replace the Oregon which was recently destroyed by fire. The new building will be put on the opposite side of the street from where the Oregon stood.

Gas Schroder writes a friend from Tempe, Arizona, that he is still gaining a little, and now weighs 184 lbs. His cough left him two months ago, and he continues to sleep out of doors. His friends here are glad to learn of his improvement, and will be pleased to learn of his complete recovery.

Thos. Godfrey, the showman, is having hard luck. After having his leg broken during a performance at Alturas last Summer, his wife has just returned from a long sick spell in a San Francisco hospital. Tom had just recovered from his broken leg when a horse kicked him and broke his arm.

Lakeview's electric lights are now merely "hanging by their eyebrows." The wood pile at the plant has been exhausted, and only by persistent skrimshing has enough wood been secured to keep the lights burning from night to night. The lights may wink out any time without warning unless more wood is furnished.

The basket social given at the Craine Creek school house last Friday night was a decided success. Those who went from town had a good time. After a short program was rendered, 30 baskets were auctioned off to the highest bidders. $59.20 was realized, which amount will go toward buying an organ for the school house.

The talk of land fraud in Oregon has brought down the wrath of Land Commissioner Hermann, Senators Mitchell and Simon, and Congressman Tongue. They say there is no fraud, or if so they know nothing of it. The rash of Eastern timbermen to secure claims in Oregon has made some home people sore and they are making a great ado about nothing.

Perry McDaniel who has been out to the desert with his sheep was in Lakeview Monday. Perry says he has his sheep located at the head of Buzzard canyon in Harney Co., 120 miles north-east of here. He thinks the feed on the desert is better than he ever saw it, and accounts for it from the fact that the water there dried up earlier than usual, and the sheep were forced to move off sooner than customary, and thus the grass was saved.

The Palace Restaurant recently opened by W. M. Harvey, is doing a rushing business both night and day, and is prepared to serve the public with everything in the market at short notice. Mr. Sherlock will go to San Francisco some time during the winter where Mrs. Sherlock will meet him.

The legislative committee of the Lewis and Clark Fair Board will ask President Roosevelt to recommend in a special message to Congress a National appropriation of $2,000,000 for the 1905 Exposition at Portland. They will send J. F. Knapp to interview Governors of Western Legislatures toward prevailing upon them to recommend appropriations of their respective Legislatures and to address letters to these Governors for the same purpose.

R. F. McConaughy and D. P. Brown passed through town the latter part of last week on their way to the lower country says the Alturas Plaindealer. Mr. Brown will spend the holidays with his family at Berkeley, after which he will return to Modoc. Mr. McConaughy will go first to Southern California and after a short stay will proceed to the city of Mexico, where he will spend the winter. He is in search of health and hopes to find it in a high, dry climate, so characteristic of the land of the Aztecs. We wish him a pleasant journey and hope he will return completely restored to health.
