

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

Merry Christmas.

Going to the dance tonight?

The lerman is now trying to get in his fine work.

Kentucky Favorite Whisky—mildest and best. Physicians recommend it. Post & King.

R. Random of Paisley, was doing business in Lakeview last Thursday.

Edw. Hertzog and wife of New Pine Creek were in Lakeview last Friday.

Get a fine hot bath (porcelain tub), a clean shave and any style hair cut at Frank D. Smith's, next door to Bank, if Lakeview will be well lighted when Mr. Anthony gets his electric system to working.

Frank Smith has repaired and fitted up his barber shop in a very neat and attractive manner.

See Mrs. F. D. Smith if you wish to order first-class wraps and tailor-made goods. Agent for the famous Edward R. Grossman Co., Chicago. 43-ff

W. B. Hampton purchased a bunch of horses from Jim Small for shipment to California, says the Post.

The biggest and finest time to be had this season will be the masquerade ball to be given by Maxwell & Hatchelder on Christmas night. 48

The city electric lights began to shine again last week, and will no doubt continue from now on, but will probably not run later than 10 p. m.

Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home. 37-ff

Mrs. Ollie Heryford returned last week from a three month visit to Napa and San Francisco. She was very glad to get back to home and friends.

California farm for sale at a big bargain. 160 acres fenced and cross fenced. Cost present owner $19,500 but will be sold for $5000. 1/2 down and balance on easy payments. Inquire at this office. 47-ff

W. A. Currier will take a couple of car loads of horses to the California market, says the Post. He started with them yesterday. Mrs. Currier will accompany him.

A fine quality of whisky is like a fine quality of anything else. It costs a little more, but nothing is too good for us Americans. Inquire on having "Jesse Moore" Whisky. Ask Jammertal.

Richard Kingsley was in town from the West Side last Thursday and reported that a Christmas tree and a big time was on the program at the Union School house. There was no dance as some body reported.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Astoria, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price. 41

Wm. Hammersley the hero of the "Lord of the Desert," was in town several days last week. Bill looks none the worse after his tussel with old Egan, the Plute Chief, and the subsequent rescue of the young heroine, Bertha Lyle.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42-ff

Mrs. M. McMillen arrived from Chico last week on a visit to her daughter Mrs. C. R. Anderson. Mrs. McMillen formerly resided in Lakeview, and many will remember when she conducted the old Lakeview House.

An old-fashioned toddy—either hot or cold—is a great drink if made of Jesse Moore Whisky. A little sugar, a little water, then the pure stuff—"Jesse Moore" Whiskey. Jammertal keeps it.

The Greater Salem Commercial Club of Salem, Ore., at its last meeting voted to guarantee $1000 towards the Greater Salem stake for the 1903 state fair. The fair board will add another $1000, making a $2000 stake for this annual event.—Rural Spirit.

B. F. McCullough, the California horse buyer was at Paisley last week says the Post, buying heavy horses for the lower market. His object up in this country was to buy mules, but finding them scarce decided to buy up 300 or 400 head of good horses. He purchased 24 head from W. A. Currier.

To-day is Christmas.

The Oregon Weekly Journal, a Democratic newspaper, 16 pages, full of news—all of it 41 a year to any address. The Journal, P. O. Box 121, Portland, Or.

The Oregon State Fair will give a stake for two-year-old runners to be known as the Illinois stake, with $300 added money. Get your colts ready and help make this the big event of the fair.—Rural Spirit.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular clubroom. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room, 42 ff

The Oregon State Fair has authorized a stake of $1000 for foals of 1901 to be raced for at the next state fair for two-year-olds. The money will be divided 60 per cent to trotters and 40 per cent to pacers. Hobbies barred in both events.—Rural Spirit.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor" also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

W. O. Minor's shorthorn bull Rolando won first prize in senior yearling class at the great International show, held in Chicago last week. Rolando was bred and raised by Mr. Minor at Heppner, Oregon, and proves that Oregon can breed and raise prize winners in any show ring.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Next spring the Oregon State Fair will inaugurate a stallion produce stake, similar to the one now in vogue in California. The association would $500. This race will be for foals of 1904 to be raced for a two-year-old form and should be worth $8000 if well patronized by stallion owners.—Rural Spirit.

To improve the appetite and to act on the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Soutz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist. Every box warranted.

The Kind of Seeds That Yield.
Like everything else there are good seeds and bad seeds. Seeds that grow and seeds that don't grow; seeds that yield and seeds that don't yield and a little thought given now to the selection of seed you'll need, will be found time well spent, though realized much better at the harvest if you select the world-famous Ferry's seeds—the kind that always yield. For nearly half a century Ferry's Seeds have been known and sown wherever good crops are grown, until farmer and gardener alike, have learned to depend upon their wonderful reliable growing and yielding qualities, year after year, to the exclusion of others.

Unfortunately the seed business seems to afford a means for many unscrupulous people, who aim to blind the unwary to quality, through littleness of price and boastful claims; who in reality have nothing to substantiate their claims, no reputation at stake, no past record as proof. It is better to pay a little more for the seed and be assured of a great deal more at the harvest by sowing Ferry's Seeds. The 1903 Seed Annual which is sent free, post paid, will be found unusually interesting and instructive. Write for it today. Address, D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich.

Forethought.

Gilhooley—O! jist bought me a bottle of hair restorer.
Mulaney—But your hair ain't falling out.
Gilhooley—That's jist it. If O! shtart usin' it now, O! won't git bald when me hair does fall out.—New York Times.
