A Day Lost At Adel.

The people of Adel evidently took a nap one day last week. To them last Saturday was Sunday, and they duly observed it as the Sabbath day and "kept it holy." Sunday they donned their old clothes and began the pursuit of their usual daily vocation, and no one was the wiser. Monroe Mansfield and Alex McCulley rode over to Lakeview on Monday, and when they reached town they were amazed to find the stores closed and people going to church—it was Sunday.

J. E. BERNARD & SON.

Lakeview, January, 8th, 1903.

Dear Friends:—

We come to you again with this personal request for your trade. You want goods—we want business. Your purpose is to buy goods right. Our purpose is to sell you goods right. It also stands to reason that we are going to make our prices as low as consistent with good business judgement, in order to interest you, and, as the largest dealers in Lakeview in our line, we can not be undersold on an equal class of goods. The reasons are many and obvious. First, we buy mostly direct from factory; we buy in large quantities, ship in car lots, and in every way save you all the money possible.

Yours respectfully,

J. E. BERNARD & SON.
