Wm. Quigley of Riverside, Klamath river, sold a bunch of 40 head of steers to a butcher at Roseburg, Or., for 8 cents. They were driven through Yreka last week by his boys, and shipped north. Quigley had a standing offer for 7 1/2, and the Yreka butcher would have given 8 if he kept them to last of February.—Yreka Journal.

There is a strong probability that W. R. Hearst will be nominated for President by the Union Labor party. We do not believe, however, that the Democratic party will ever be brought to endorse him—though the Democrats have done some very foolish things. But should such an untoward event happen—well, we will train with Teddy.—Alturas Plaindealer.

The small boy is getting his full share of pleasure out of the snow. Felix Heryford nearly every day hitches his pony to his hand sled, and half a dozen other boys hitch their sleds behind with long ropes, and the tandem will be stretched out for nearly a block in length. The fun comes when he hits the pony and then turns around a corner and spills them all out in the snow.

E. B. Henry of this place has purchased of A. T. Laugell of Bonanza the celebrated horse, Oakwood, and he will make the season at the J. P. Lee ranch near Keno says the Klamath Express. An insipient blaze was nipped in its infancy last Saturday morning by Dan Maloy. Calhoun, the painter, was working on the inside of the Innes house on Water Street, and had built up a big fire. Smoke was noticed issuing from the roof in a large volume by Mrs. Blair across the street, and she gave the alarm. Dan soon put the fire out, which had caught in the roof, with large snow balls, and thus saved the house, as the painter was not aware of any danger.

Fisher of Lake county, who sold out and went to Jackson county to locate.

Local efforts are being put forth to persuade the state legislature to permit fishing in Klamath county the year around, under proper restrictions. People are now prevented from catching fish at the time of year when they are the best to eat. Our streams don't run through other counties of the state and so no other county should be interested in telling us when or how long we should fish.—Republican. The same conditions exist in Lake county, and such a law would be greatly appreciated by the people of this county.

Lakeview, January, 8th, 1903.

Dear Friends:—

We come to you again with this personal request for your trade. You want goods—we want business. Your purpose is to buy goods right. Our purpose is to sell you goods right. It also stands to reason that we are going to make our prices as low as consistent with good business judgement, in order to interest you, and, as the largest dealers in Lakeview in our line, we can not be undersold on an equal class of goods. The reasons are many and obvious. First, we buy mostly direct from factory; we buy in large quantities, ship in car lots, and in every way save you all the money possible.

Yours respectfully,
J. E. BERNARD & SON.
