E. L. Green, who left Paisley a few weeks ago in search of health, is now at Chico, Cal., where he expects to remain for awhile.

China is short on taels with which to pay her debts to the powers, but she can make it up, if agreeable, with tales of woe.

You won't find "Jesse Moore" Whisky in cheap places—it isn't made for cheap men to drink. It is the best and demanded by the best people. For sale by Jammerthal.

The longest fence in the world is a wire-netting fence in Australia, 1,236 miles long, its object being to keep the rabbits from the cultivated fields.

A little New York girl got $12,000 for an arm that was cut off by a street-car. But when she grows up, many a man will be after her other hand.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor"; also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

The Government has withdrawn from public entry a tract of land containing 3,400,000 acres in the Blue mountains, Oregon, as a forest reserve.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sios & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price. 41

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and quick healing liniment for cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

The Examiner, like most newspapers, takes occasion every month or two to remind correspondents to always sign their own name besides the non deplume they wish their letter signed, to all communications they send in. Two weeks ago we received a good communication from Warner without the writers' name attached, consequently it was not published. If we should publish an article, the author of which we did not know, and any trouble should arise from it The Examiner would have no recourse, and would be solely responsible.

The Virginian who introduced an anti-kissing bill is named B. Ware. Perhaps it is because the girl repented his name in earnest that he wants to deprive others of what he cannot get.

According to a Utah chap, Outlaw Tracey is still alive, having passed through that state last Fall. Tell this yarn to the Mormons; up here we know that Tracey is dead, whether Wilkes Booth and Czolgozz are or not.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42-41

It may not be generally known that the original idea of the Chinaman's pigtail was that it formed a convenient handle by which, one day, he would be lifted up to Paradise. This curious belief is still to be found among the natives.

Last Sunday while Al and John Farrow were separating some horses in a corral Al jumped in ahead of the animal they wished to cut out from the bunch and it ran over him knocking him down and trampling him under its feet. Mr. Farrow was knocked about pretty rough, but received no serious injury.—Post.
