

Local happenings Told in Paragraphs

Smith Edwards was in from the west side Friday.

D. H. Hartson, the attorney, has a card in this issue.

Suspenders, hats and other furnishings at Schmincks are being closed out rapidly at cost.

The marriage season seems to be well on in Lakeview.

W. H. Barr came up from his ranch below New Pine Creek Friday.

Kentucky Favorite Whisky—mildest and best. Physicians recommend it. Post & King.

M. T. Mansfield, hostler at the stage station at Newell's came to town Thursday.

Notice the new ads of Bayley & Maxwell, real estate agents and Harvey's restaurant in this issue.

California farm for sale at a big bargain. 160 acres fenced and cross fenced. Cost present owner $10,500 but will be sold for $5000; 1/3 down and balance on easy payments. Inquire at this office.

Miss Inez Wheeler has been engaged to teach the school at Warner canyon, which will begin some time next month.

Bread as a daily article of food is used by only about one-third of the population of the earth.

Miss Jennie Maxwell departed Friday last, for Toledo, Oregon, where she has accepted a position to teach school.

Connoisseurs of perfect goods appreciate "Jesse Moore" Whisky for its purity and delightful flavor. It is without a peer. For sale by Jammerthal.

Elsie Russell, who recently took up a timber claim on Muddy Creek, contemplates putting up a saw mill and helping supply the demand for lumber this season.

When you feel blue, and that everything goes wrong, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels, give you a relish for your food and make you feel that in this old world is a good place to live. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

An Indian at Silver Lake hung his wife one day last week, and only for some one who happened along and cut the rope, there would have been one more "good Indian."—Post Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home.

The Medford Enquirer says: We don't think there is another town in Oregon where the newspaper business is so overdone as here in Medford, and not only is it overdone but help is scarce, of any reliability, and wages are out of all proportion to the profits received. Any person with common sense and ordinary business ability knows there is not business enough for more than two newspapers here and the overproduction will in the end work an injury to the town.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes.

T. W. Colvin writes The Examiner from Lincoln, Cal., under date of Feb. 13th, stating that he had missed receiving several late copies of The Examiner by some unaccountable reason. He says, "When we miss The Examiner it is like missing a letter from home." Further he says: "We are having some cold weather down here, froze our water pipes all up last night, and still the north wind blows cold. It was so cold yesterday that it run the men out of the vineyards that were pruning the vines."

French people always have their election days on Sundays.

The chance of two finger prints being alike is not one in 64,000,000,000.

There are 280,000,000 Mohammedans in the world, and their number is rapidly increasing.

The next bottle of whisky you buy resolve to try the "Jesse Moore." You've heard it was the best; prove it by practical test. For sale by Jammerthal.

Frogs as large as oxen once existed in Oklahoma, if the fossils recently found may be believed.

There are 300,000 women in Chicago that have the right to vote; and only 1,073 registered this year.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price.

Russia has more holidays than any other European nation—86 in all. Austria comes next with 76.

Oregon, Washington and California contain one-third of the standing timber of the United States.

So keen is the elephant's sense of smell that he can scent a human being at a distance of 1,000 yards.

An energetic manager for office to be opened in this city for large manufacturing concern. Salary One Hundred Dollars per month extra commission and expenses. Five Hundred Dollars cash security required. Best of references. Address, Manager P. O. Box 2124 San Francisco Calif.

The West in 1850 produced 84,000,000 bushels of grain. In 1900 the production was 2,400,000,000 bushels.

Cast-iron, antimony, and bismuth all expand when they cool. Most other substances contract when cold.

Over four billion post office stamps of various denominations are shipped to the different offices within a year.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular club room. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room, 42-4f

The earliest library was that of Nebuchadnezzar. Every book was a brick engraved with cuneiform characters.

Each year about $50,000 is expended in sprinkling the streets of London with sand, to prevent horses from slipping.

The world produces 650,008,000 tons of coal a year. Two-thirds of this is dug in Great Britain and the United States.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson-Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructors;" also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Part of Lewis and Clark's journey lay through virgin forests. The Oregon Country now cuts 2,500,000,000 feet of lumber a year.

Nearly 1,200 boys and girls are licensed by the City Council of Liverpool to sell newspapers, matches and shoe laces on the streets.

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and quick healing liniment for cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

In 1850 there were less than 2,000,000 people in the West. There are now over 21,000,000. The West now has more people than the entire United States had in 1850.

NEW GOODS Continually arriving and are sold at Bed Rock Prices. Will exchange for Barley, Wheat or Flour.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| DRY GOODS | GROCERIES |
| Shirt Waist Patterns | Crockery and Glassware |
| Ladies Facinators | Mens Felt Boots |
| Novelties | Mens Rubber Shoes |
| Ladies and Misses Underwear | Ladies and Misses Shoes |
| Ladies and Misses Hose | Mens Boots and Bootees |
| Velvets and Laces | Boys Caps and Hats |
| Kid Gloves | Boys Clothing |

The Best Goods and the Lowest Priced Store in Town

...C. U. SNIDER...

THE
LAKE COUNTY
EXAMINER

THE LARGEST AND BEST
NEWS - PAPER
 IN SOUTH
 EASTERN OREGON
 $ 2.00 PER YEAR
JOB - PRINTING - -
 LATEST DESIGNS
 LOWEST PRICES
WE - GUARANTEE
SATISFACTION
