D. H. Hartson has opened a law office in the south room of the Rehart building.

Ed O. Lamb came down from Summer Lake Thursday to have a gathering in his car treated.

When a newspaper calls its contemporary a "wrag" it is getting pretty mad. The extra "W" means something.

It is a pleasure to call for whisky and get a brand that is not doctored or adulterated—something pure. "Jesse Moore" Whisky is guaranteed pure. Ask Jannerthal.

Bayley & Maxwell are making a large sectional map of this land district on which is marked the many kinds of lands.

Wendell, the butcherman, has had a large refrigerator fixed up in his shop to keep meats fresh and cool during the summer season.

Robt. L. Benefel returned from a visit among relatives at Santa Barbara last Thursday. His health was greatly benefited by the trip.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor," also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Frank W. Musgrave, who has been clerking for V. Conn the past six months, resigned his position Tuesday says last week's Post. He departed with Joe McNew for Crooked Creek to stay with his brother Mark, for a while.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42-tf

J. B. McNew, who recently sold his sheep to John Reed, of New Pine Creek, left here Tuesday for New Pine Creek with Mr. Reed's team. Mr. McNew says hardly he knows what to do himself since he sold his sheep.—Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Robnett and daughter Millie, of Willow Ranch, were in Lakeview last Friday and remained over night. The roads down that way now are too bad to make the round trip in one day and do any trading.

Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home. 37 tf.

Whorton & Smith, owners of the Palace saloon, are transforming their club room into a reading room. The latest daily papers, sporting papers and magazines will be kept on file. Books and novels will soon be added. Fifty pictures have just been hung on the walls to add to the attractiveness of the place.

Rufus Phelps came from the desert Monday, and tells of a spring that has burst forth at Sheep Rock, which if permanent will be of great convenience to stockmen, as heretofore they have always had to dig for water there. Now there is a creek there with fish in it; what a fine camping place says the Post. No one knows how the fish got there nor where they came from, but Ruf says they are there and we have no reason to contradict it. With a fishing rod added to the paraphernalia of the camp, it would insure a good breakfast for the buccaro or sheep herder.

A cafe, club or hotel which serves "Jesse Moore" Whisky is handing to their trade the finest goods that can be had. A cafe is known by the goods it sells. See Jannerthal.

W. L. Stanfield's gray gelding, E. M. Brattain won two good races on the Ingleside track last week. The time and distance was the same in both races—1:11; purses $325. There were thirteen horses in the first race and seven in the last. The city papers in commenting, say: "Brattain was much the best horse; just breezed all the way and won as easily as he pleased." This horse, by Captive and out of Leora, the latter owned by E. M. Brattain of Lakeview, has done some great work, and is considered a wonderful horse.

If it's a bilious attack, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick recovery is certain. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Erickson, the Prineville capitalist, is about to put on a line of stage coaches between Prineville and Silver Lake by the desert route. A station will be established at Button Springs, the location of the Lake County Experimental Station, which will be very convenient for students and employes of that institution who have occasion to visit the outer world. In the meantime Vanderverts line will continue to carry passengers and mail on the old route.—Des Chutes Echo.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular club room. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room, 42-tf

The melting snow has made the roads in all directions quite muddy for the past two weeks, but as the frost is not entirely out of the ground, they will get worse before they get better. The stages have been meeting with difficulty to make the schedule time.

Wakeful Children.
For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach, and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.
