

News Notes from Chewaucan.

Paisley Ore. March 8, 1903.

Mrs. M. Sult and her two daughters Frances and Pearl were down from Summer Lake to attend the benefit entertainment.

Thos. Sherlock was in town last week for a sheep header, and engaged Prof. Miller to help guard his flocks.

Earnest Mathes will resign his position on the B ranch and will work on the ZX ranch commencing about April first.

The benefit entertainment was a grand success last Friday night. Besides an extraordinary program, there were baskets galore, which were bid on very well. Some went as high as four dollars, and all of them went for a good price. Judge Watson was the auctioneer, and he was the best man for the place there was in town. The proceeds amounted to almost $100, which is a big help toward paying the balance on the parsonage. The people of Paisley come right to the front when it comes to helping in church work.

S. O. Pease was down from Summer Lake a few days last week, and attended the benefit entertainment while here, and gave some of the boys quite a chase for their baskets.

Quite an enjoyable time was had at the dance the boys got up after the entertainment. It don't take long to get up a dance here.

J. C. Hanan took some timber men to Sand Springs Monday.

Every one is wondering how the journalistic scrap is coming out between Metzker and Holladay. We will not venture to guess which one will come out on top. Perhaps Metzker doesn't know that Holladay used to be a reporter on the Kansas City Star, and when it comes to journalism Holladay isn't slow.

J. N. Watson and Al Farrow are contemplating getting an automobile. They say people will have to take their hats off to them then. It will be Judge Watson and Col. Farrow if you please.

Sprague River Pickups.

By, Oregon, March 8th, 1903.

Lake County Examiner,

I will send you a few items from this district.

The snow is lasting well, and hay is getting scarce with most of our stockmen, and what stock that are on the range are getting very poor.

Buck Anderson has sold his place and stock to W. F. Finley for a consideration of one thousand dollars.

B. F. McCullach arrived tonight from Cro Landing, Cal., to receive and ship the sixty-six head of mules which he had purchased from J. W. Well's our Klamath County's famous mule raiser, in December last. The mules will start to Montague tomorrow with Spratt Wells and L. L. Russell in charge. Mr. McCullach will remain in this district a few days to purchase more mules and a few horses if they can be secured.

Miss Marion Antone is over from Bonanza, where she has been attending school, for a few day's visit with her sister Mrs. Creed McKindree.

TUFFY.

A Daring Feat.

Second Warden E. A. McPherson climbed the penitentiary wall at Salem Sunday night, March 1st, went through the shops and climbed out again.

This was done to test the vigilance of Guards T. E. Hammersley and D. J. Ferree, who, on the charge of neglect of duty, were asked by Governor Chamberlain to hand in their resignations. Both guards are well known in this section.

It is quite certain now that the rifles by which Tracy and Merrill made their escape last summer were taken into the prison shops after night in this manner.

McPherson's feat was done at the risk of his life. Had he been discovered, he would very probably have been instantly shot.

District Attorney Reames Explains.

March, 2, 1903.

To the Citizens of Lake County:

By permission of the Editor, I desire to make a brief statement with reference to the effect which the new District Attorney law will have upon affairs pending in Lake County.

While I very much regret not being able to meet with the people of Lakeview at the coming terms of Court, yet I recognize that with eleven terms of Court a year in this district, and the territory scattered as it was, it was impossible for a District Attorney to give proper attention to the affairs of his office. It was often necessary for me to leave a term of Court unfinished in order to be able to be present at the first days of a succeeding term in another County. I was situated too far from the County Seats to advise the County officers upon County matters except by mail which often required too much time to be of any service.

I think the new arrangement will bring to Lake County a better administration of its officers than could have been possible with one District Attorney for so large a district.

While this action materially reduces my salary and cuts me off from that end of the district, at the same time I believe it will eventually be for the best interests of the County.

With reference to the case against ex-sheriff Nelson and his bondsmen, I will say that if the County Court desires me to do so, I will, without expense to the County, assist your District Attorney in handling these two cases on appeal in the supreme Court. This would not be necessary except for the fact that each of these cases is wrapped up in long and complicated accounts which a new District Attorney might not readily be able to handle.

I do not believe, with your present District Attorney, it would be necessary to have my services in this matter, but I have thought that inasmuch as the entire County was interested in this case, it would be only right to tender to the tax payers of the County, my services for the completion of this case, if my services were desired in the matter.

When these two cases are finally determined, as I hope they will be on appeal, there will be nothing further with reference to my duties as District Attorney in that section, in which I could serve the people.

With kind wishes to my friends in Lake County, and with many pleasant memories of my visits there, I am,

Sincerely and truly yours,

A. E. REAMES
District Attorney.

A Candy Pulling.

An abundance of fun was had last Friday at a candy pulling at the residence of Mr. G. S. Nickerson on Elm St., Lakeview, Oregon, given by Misses Nell Simpson and Bertha Nickerson. Those present were Misses Ruth and Mabel Nickerson, Ethel McKee, Genie Snelling, Lollah Brown, Katy Woodcock, Bertha Nickerson, Nell Simpson, Messrs Sam McKee, Ralph Koozer, Ross Finley, Clarence Snider, Jim Maxwell and Phillip Boche.

"A bright idea," "solemn occasion," and other games afforded much amusement for a few hours, when the candy was cool and ready to pull.

After spending a delightful evening pulling candy and playing games we retired to our several homes to sleep until noon next day.
