

Additional Local

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Amick were among the visitors from New Pine Creek, Tuesday.

Chas. Barker run up an extra stage from Alturas Sunday, bringing in a lot of delayed freight that had accumulated for some time past.

Ed A. Light, brother of Frank Light, and formerly of Lakeview, recently underwent a serious operation at Eureka, but is now improving.

If you never danced before you should attend the St. Patrick's dance next Tuesday night at Post & King hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Vinyard returned to their home at New Pine Creek last week from Oakland Cal., where they have been spending the winter.

A teacher's state life diploma has been issued by the state board to Miss Ella Callahan, of Lakeview, a graduate of the Southern Oregon State Normal School.

The Ashland Town Talk has changed hands and name. It is now published by A. C. Jacobson and its name is the Ashland Tribune. M. F. Boston will conduct the editorial department.

I have a lot of fine dried peaches at 6 cents per pound at China Restaurant by Brewery Saloon.

Wong Sam.

Fred Fisher and wife came in from the 70 ranch in Drews valley Saturday, and brought in their little daughter for medical treatment. They returned Monday, with the baby apparently well.

John Aviragnete has moved his tailor shop from the Rehart building into Chas. Umbach's office building recently moved to the lot by the fire bell. Mr. Umbach will occupy the rooms vacated by Aviragnete.

J. Wendell, the butcher, while over to Ft. Bidwell last week, purchased from — Monroe, 20 head of fat beef steers which will be delivered in Lakeview this week and placed on feed for the benefit of his customers.

Men's dress suits, working suits, sack suits; a big line to select from at Schminck's. Come early if you want to make a good selection.

A. Venator has disposed of his entire sheep holdings, consisting of several thousand, to outside buyers, who, we understand, are in the market for more. We are informed the price was very satisfactory.—Burns Times-Herald.

William Sherlock and his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. Sherlock passed through Silver Lake, enroute to Shaniko the first of the week, says the Silver Lake Central Oregonian. Mrs. Sherlock will go on to Portland, where she will enter the hospital for medical treatment.

St. Patrick's Day will be appropriately celebrated on the evening of the 17th by an all night dance at the Post & King hall. You are invited.

Local sports were somewhat surprised Tuesday morning when Joe Lane received a telegram from Portland stating that Jack O'Keefe had won from Jimmy Britt the lightweight championship of America on a foul in the sixth round. The contest was to be a 20 round bout and the betting was 10 to 7 in favor of Britt.

Fayette Cannon and Pete Follett were up from New Pine Creek Monday. Mr. Cannon received a letter written by his wife the other day, stating that she was now well, and would return home on the 21st. This is gratifying news to her husband and friends who feared she would not recover from the serious runaway accident that happened to her last fall.

An all night dance will be given at the Post & King hall on St. Patrick's Day, March 17th. Music will be furnished by Prof. A. A. Graham, violin, L. D. Robison, violin, Geo. Reid bass viol, Mrs. Frank Reid piano. The dance will be all night and the tickets will be $1.00. Everybody invited.

Taxes are being paid in to the Sheriff quite lively these days. From the 1st of March up to yesterday noon $20,795 had been paid in, and Sheriff Dunlap anticipates from $4,000 to $10,000 more by closing time next Saturday, that being the last day on which the 2 per cent rebate is allowed.

The first issue of The Central Oregonian came out last Thursday at Silver Lake, published by Bailey & Black. It is a four column, four page sheet. Another paper to be called the Bulletin, will appear this week. When the two other projected papers have started there, the long neglected newspaper field at Silver Lake will nearly be filled.

Razors, pocket knives and cutlery of all kinds at Schminck's now being sold at greatly reduced prices.

Major L. T. Barin, one of Oregon's old Republican War horses, arrived here from Portland last week, and has been looking up some timber land before the land office. The Major passed through here in 1862, before there was any town. He served nine years as register of the Oregon City land office, and was at one time U. S. Marshall for Oregon.

The report that cattlemen shot and killed over 400 head of sheep belonging to W. W. Brown on the range near Hampton Butte, not long ago, is not thought to be true. It is known, however, that Mr. Brown was accused of informing on some cattlemen who had some government land fenced, which had to be torn down, and they resented this action, and took revenge on his sheep.

If you want to keep warm this winter get yourself some of that warm underwear at Schminck's. First come first served.

A large cougar came quite close to town early Monday morning. He came out on to a point of rock on the hill east of the school house, and gave the residents in that vicinity quite a scare when he gave vent to one or two yells. Some thought the animal had come down into their back yards, but investigation next day showed tracks in the snow about 200 yards from any house. It is thought the cougar came down in search of rabbits for an early morning meal.

Tom A. Smith, the well known manager for Baker & Hamilton for this district, arrived last Sunday, accompanied by D. A. Disbrow and W. F. Wallace. Mr. Disbrow is the traveling salesman for Baker & Hamilton, and takes the place of L. E. C. Jordan, who has been promoted to the management of the hardware department of the house at Sacramento. Mr. Wallace has come to Lakeview to remain permanently, and will take charge of the hardware and implement branch here.

That large display of crockery and glassware at Schminck's is fast disappearing. Better make your selection before it is all gone.

During the past two weeks the work of cutting an arch through the brick wall between the Monogram and Schminck's stores, and the changing of shelving, counters and moving of goods, etc., has caused some of the uninformed to inquire, what's up. Ahlstrom Bro's are preparing to extend their business, and on April 1st will occupy both store buildings, having bargained for the stock of goods of H. Schminck & Son. When these young business men are comfortably located in their enlarged quarters, they will be in a position to supply any needed want from a dish of ice cream to a red flannel shirt or a threshing machine. Starting as these young men did a few years ago, with a sack of peanuts, or in other words, a very small investment, all due credit should be given them for the upright manner in which they have forged ahead, until now they occupy a high and enviable position in the retail business of Lakeview.

J. E. BERNARD & SON.

Lakeview, January, 8th, 1903.

Dear Friends:—

We come to you again with this personal request for your trade. You want goods—we want business. Your purpose is to buy goods right. Our purpose is to sell you goods right. It also stands to reason that we are going to make our prices as low as consistent with good business judgement, in order to interest you, and, as the largest dealers in Lakeview in our line, we can not be undersold on an equal class of goods. The reasons are many and obvious. First, we buy mostly direct from factory; we buy in large quantities, ship in car lots, and in every way save you all the money possible.

Yours respectfully,
J. E. BERNARD & SON.
