Light & Harrow have decorated the hotel saloon windows with some fine red damask curtains.

Mrs. S. T. Colvin came in from the Colvin ranch Thursday on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Harris.

A. M. Smith and wife were up from New Pine Creek last Thursday. Mr. Smith brought up a wagon load of fine bacon he made last fall.

A fine quality of whisky is like a fine quality of anything else. It costs a little more, but nothing is too good for us Americans. Insist on having "Jesse Moore" Whisky. Ask Jammerthal.

Master Evan Hartin came up from Reno last week with W. A. Massingill, and is visiting with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schminck.

The Silver Lake Bulletin is the latest journalistic effort. Wm. Holder and W. A. Bell are the publishers. It is very neat and well edited, and looks as though it come to stay—until the timber is all gone, at least.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular clubroom. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room, 42-44

N. Fine was over from Warner attending to some land business last week. Maj says the dust was blowing when he left, but he saw none on the way over. He encountered snow nearly the entire distance, and in Camas prairie it is quite deep yet.

Elliott Lyons, the murderer of Sheriff W. W. Withers of Lane county, was sentenced at Eugene by Judge Havilton to be hanged on Friday, April 17th. The trial of Lyons lasted only two days, and the jury deliberated only a few minutes before returning their verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor;" also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Representative Williamson and Former Representative Moody were assured on a visit to the Indian office at Washington on Saturday Mch. 7th, that at the end of the year Agent O. C. Applegate would be continued in charge of the Klamath Indian Agency, only his title would be changed from Agent to Superintendent, and the salary will be the same as before.

An old-fashioned toddy—either hot or cold—is a great drink if made of Jesse Moore Whisky. A little sugar, a little water, then the pure stuff—"Jesse Moore" Whiskey. Jammerthal keeps it.

Geo. M. Jones of Paisley, was at "Uncle" Jim Foster's Summer Lake farm one day last week, says the Post, and reports having witnessed the manufacture of genuine maple syrup by "Auntie" Foster. The article is home production; the maple trees grow in the front yard at the Foster home, and were tapped recently and Mr. Jones says they are "running" nicely. The syrup, Mr. Jones says, is of an excellent quality, as "Auntie" Foster is an expert on maple syrup and the raw material was of the best.

Isn't it about time some one was discovering a gold mine hereabouts. Things have been altogether too quiet in that line lately.

The business men of Ashland and Medford some time ago agreed to close their places of business at 6 o'clock every evening. They have found that they had done just as much business, and the public has not been inconvenienced and it is quite satisfactory to all concerned.

The hygienic craze is going to extremes. By ordinance in Newark, N. J., a barber may not blow the hair clippings from a customer's neck without being subject to a fine. Antiseptic toothpicks are advertised by a swell New York restaurant. Each is in separate wrapper and both the points have been treated with a germ-destroying preparation.

Kentucky Favorite Whisky—mildest and best. Physicians recommend it. Post & King. 41.

Dealers in mohair are on the ground from the East for the purpose of buying up the Oregon crop of 1903, which will be on the market next month. Mohair is largely the product of the Willamette valley, and the crop of last year amounted to 400,000 pounds. It is clipped from the backs of the Angora goats in March, and the market opens this year at 25 cents per pound.—Junction City Times.

Suspenders, hats and other furnishings at Schmincks are being closed out rapidly at cost. 52.

A man had a stack of Silver dollars. When he stacked them in two piles he had one left over. He stacked them in three piles and had one left over. He tried stacking them in four piles, with the same result. When he made five piles he also had one left over. He tried stacking them in six different piles and still one was left over. When he made seven piles of the dollars he found they came out even. How many dollars did he have?—Ex.

Here is an editor who has come close to hitting the nail on the head. He says: "The newspaper field is a wide field, and full of roses and thorns. When you roast the preacher the ungodly smile; when you roast the ungodly the preacher smiles. If you roast the saloon man the teetotaler smiles; when you roast the teetotaler the saloon man sets 'em up. If you swear you are a wicked man, and if you pray you are a hypocrite. If you have an opinion you get cussed and if you don't have any you are a non-entity. Most people know a great many things; the journalist is expected to know everything."

Cats are so numerous in Lakeview, that the average citizen has become so accustomed to them that they can not even tell the color of the felines if they had just observed one or more in their playful antics. We have cats of all colors of the rainbow in Lakeview; Maltese cats, yellow cats, spotted cats, gray cats; cats without any ears or tails, cats that have tenor voices and cats with bass voices, but a cat with a pale voice and clad in a coat of fur of bright red, attracted some attention the other day. A close observation and inquiry disclosed the fact that this cat makes its bed in a barrel of dry red mineral paint, and seems to think that its new abode is just about the right thing.
