LAKEVIEW, OREGON, MAR. 26, 1903.

A Missouri editor makes the following statement. "We have dropped a number of papers from our exchange list, because the aforesaid papers are billious. A newspaper can no more afford to associate with a sour, snarling, fretting, envious newspaper than an individual can afford to keep company with that kind of a man. We don't want such a paper on our table, and we can't afford to read a pessimistic sheet that is forever out of harmony with everything. The editor wants to be young when he dies; wants to have faith in God and man as long as he lives; wants to keep hopeful and cheerful. Hence, he don't care to borrow any 'blue' or rub up against any chronic old sore-headed grumbler. Give up the paper that sweetens and brightens life, the paper that arches the bow of hope above us and cheers us along the way. Lend the croaking old-taleful sound to those who live in the graveyard and relish grunts and growls and groans; to those who fatten on suspicion, discord, nasty insinuations and dirty innuendoes. We don't care to read such sheets."

It is said that coyotes are becoming very numerous in the hills of this county and are destroying a large amount of stock, says the Glenn (Cal.) Transcript. The counties of Tehama and Colusa have reduced the bounty and this county should do the same. The present bounty is not enough to justify hunters in looking after these destructive animals. There should be no distinction in price of full grown coyotes and pups. Our stockmen should be protected and a bounty of $5 per head should be placed at once on coyotes.

What are Portland capitalists and jobbers going to do about the more than half a million annual trade of Lake and Klamath Counties? Are they to let it go permanently to San Francisco? And are they to sit quietly down here and see the trade of all of Central and most of Eastern Oregon diverted to Eastern cities? This is a very important subject, demanding immediate attention.—Telegram.

Tom Sharkey and Jack Monroe will fight at Butte for a purse of $10,000 some time during July, before the Broadway Athletic Club. The sons of Copper King Heinze and Senator Clark, it is whispered, are behind the offer. If Monroe succeeds in beating the ex-man-o'-warsman, he will not have accomplished much, but the wise ones think the sailor will beat the miner in a romp.

An Arabian proverb, hard to read, but good to remember says: "Some know not—and know not that they know not. They are fools; avoid them. Some know not, and know that they know not. They are simple; teach them. Some know and know not that they know. They are asleep; awake them. Some know and know that they know. They are wise; follow them."

The mayor of an Ohio town commanded the town marshal to arrest the first drunken man he met, and when the marshal obeyed the mandate, he and his bold, the prisoner was the mayor. Moral: It's a poor rule that has no exceptions.

Two Taxes for 1904.

Tax payers in Oregon will pay taxes twice in 1904. They will pay the taxes levied upon the tax roll of 1903 and also the taxes levied upon the roll of 1904. This is due to a change in the law by which taxes are to be paid in the fall of the same year the assessment is made. In order to effect this change it was necessary to make the taxes payable three months earlier or nine months later. The collection of taxes is already three months later than it should be, so the legislature decided to make the taxes payable in the preceding fall rather than in the succeeding fall. Under the new arrangement the counties will have funds earlier and will save some interest on warrants. Taxpayers will feel that they are bearing a double burden the first year, but after that there will be no difference in the amount to be paid in any one year.

Under the present law the assessment is made after the first Monday in March the assessment roll being filed in September, the levy thereon made the following January and the taxes collected by the first Monday in April. Thus the taxes on the assessment of 1902 are not paid until 1903.

The new law provides that the assessor shall on the first Monday of January, procure blank assessment rolls and proceed forthwith to make his assessment, and return the roll for the first Monday of July, showing all the property owned in his county on the first Monday in January. Section 360 of the code has been amended so as to provide that the county board of equalization shall sit on the first Monday of July, instead of on the last Monday of August, as heretofore. Section 3682 was amended so as to limit the time for correcting the assessment rolls by the board of equalization of Keeping constantly at it is the key to successful advertising.

You cannot spurt much and win. A business career that goes by fits and starts will not pay so well in the long run as a business that follows a course mapped out for it and keeps increasing its advertising as the business demands it until the maximum is reached. There is a maximum for a small business beyond which it is not economy or policy to go.—Brookline Chronicle.
