 AMERICAN PATRIOTIC SONGS, MUSIC AND WORDS COMPLETE, AND GIVEN AWAY FREE.

We Americans are full of patriotism. We love our flag, we glory in our American institutions. We shout ourselves hoarse when we hear Yankee Doodle, or Marching Through Georgia. When the strains of America or the Star Spangled Banner reach our ears, off go our hats and we rise reverently to our feet. But, ask the average American citizen to sing any one of these songs, and he does well if he can struggle through one verse. He knows the tune all right, but the words "stump" him. School children are no better versed in this respect. When "speakin' day" comes, if a patriotic song is assigned to one of them there is a great flurry and search of song books and "speakers" to find the music and the words. Often it is necessary to run to the neighbors or the library to secure them. This is unfortunate. Every American, old and young, should be perfectly familiar with the words, as well as the music of our grand National songs. The music is stirring and the words inspiring, the kind that will instill into young hearts and minds, lofty American sentiments of patriotism, loyalty and independence. To supply this need we are distributing a neat little book called "Patriotic Songs of America" containing words and music complete, printed on good paper, in beautiful, clear, large type, and we will send, free of charge, to every bona fide teacher, who will send us their name and address, 12 copies. Thousands of these books were distributed by us during the past year, and we found the people so eager to secure the songs, all bound together, that we have procured a fresh edition. Send for a dozen of them. You will find them invaluable in your work. Eilers Piano House, the Great Western Piano Place, Washington street, corner Park, Portland, Ore. Dealers in high grade pianos, reed and pipe organs, piano players and electric pianos. Our leaders, the Chickering piano of Boston, the Weber of New York and the Kimball of Chicago.

I have a lot of fine dried peaches at 6 cents per pound at China Restaurant by Brewery Saloon.
