Frank Payne and wife of Silver Lake spent several days in Lakeview this week. Mr. Payne is the popular clerk in J. C. Com's store. L. F. Winkleman passed through town yesterday with three wagon loads of flour from New Pine Creek to J. C. Com's store at Silver Lake. Dr. Blondon for eight years a physician at Alturas, died in San Francisco, on Tuesday of last week from heart failure. He was 62 years of age. F. O. Ahlstrom, A. H. Hammersly and Ed Bashore went out to Dry creek last week for a few days fishing. The boys report a good time and plenty of luck. Mrs. Emerson Tuesday morning received a check for $2,000 in full payment of the beneficiary certificate held by her late husband in the A. O. U. W. Lodge of this place. F. J. Creed of New Pine Creek sold his ranch last week to Alex Robnett for $2,200. Mr. Creed's health is not good, and will remove to Medford, his old home, in a short time. On account of the poor condition of many bands of sheep, and the scarcity of grass for feed, and the cold weather, shearing has been postponed until after lambing. The Alturas Plaindealer is making arrangements for the erection of a new building, owing to an increase of business. The Examiner is pleased to note that the Plaindealer is prospering. Lakeview presented a lively appearance Saturday. In addition to the usual large member of farmers and ranchers in town trading, timber land men galore were here from everywhere. A crowd of sheepshearers were in town Monday on their way to the Moss ranch in Chewaucan. They were: Chas. Morrison, Walter Butler, Lester Vernon, A. M. and Sylvester Gallagher.

A crowd of 36 timberland men arrived here last Saturday, and 10 Sunday. Smaller crowds are coming and going all the time. The prospect is for a big rush for timber this summer. Some Lakeview people are taking advantage of their landrights while the timber lasts. W. Huse & Son, who have so ably conducted the Klamath Republican for the past two years, have sold that paper to W. O. Smith of that city. The Republican has always been a first-class county newspaper, and the new proprietor, it is said, will conduct the paper along the same lines as heretofore. W. D. Woodcock & Son, the up-to-date blacksmiths, are still at the old stand, always ready, and better equipped than ever to do all kinds of blacksmith and wagon-making. In a few days they will have a new and complete stock of ready made buggy tongues, wheels, shafts, iron single-trees, iron and steel, and hard wood of all descriptions.
