William R. Hearst, of the New York American and San Francisco Examiner has taken upon himself the responsibility of Defeating Binger Hermann for Congress. For several days past the corps of correspondents of the Hearst papers have been busy about Washington collecting data bearing on Hermann's administration of the Land Office, particularly facts which show the cause of his retirement from office. These correspondents explain that Hearst does not want the facts for publication, but for his own private use. It is not believed that they have gathered much that is damaging to Hermann personally, although their efforts have been directed in this line, and everyone supposed to have inside information has been interviewed.

The city is having cedar posts set along side of the electric light poles, some of which are badly rotten.

There is considerable dissatisfaction among parties whose bills were disallowed and cut down by the County court.
