Among a crowd of timber people from Seio, Or., were W. E. Ewing, F. J. Irvine, Dan McKight and J. R. Barnes.

Light and Harrow of Hotel Lakeview carry the latest in cigarettes. They are the fashionable Pall Mall London cigarettes, cork tipped, natural shape. Smoke a box and you'll smoke no other kind.

T. W. Roberts, the Los Angeles horse buyer, who bought horses in Lake county last fall, is here again and has already made a number of purchases. Jack Adams sold his band of horses containing from 400 to 700 head.

Fine line of Dishes and Glassware, all new at the Monogram. Ahlstrom Bros.

Ira Smith of New Pine Creek, brought up the first strawberries of the season last Saturday. We did not learn what variety they were, but presume they are the "kumearly" kind. Anyone wishing plants of this early variety, should ask Ira.

While the spring fights may not indicate the kind of weather we may expect, still it softens the complexion of the participants and makes their face look like a red rose. It don't only give employment to the doctor, but the city exchequer receives a much needed reimbursement.

P. A. McCarran, of the Flanagan Warehouse Co., of Reno, is here, and will visit all of the sheepmen of Lake county for the purpose of consigning their wool for his company. Mr. McCarran represents the house that received the highest price paid at the big sale last June.

A recent petition from Klamath Falls residents to change the schedule of the Klamath Falls—Ashland mail so that it would leave Klamath Falls at 5 o'clock in the morning instead of 9 o'clock in the evening has been denied by the postoffice department, says the Tidings.

The four smallpox cases reported as doing finely, says the Republican. The Klamath house which has been under quarantine for the past two weeks has been completely fumigated and as no new cases of the disease has developed, will be taken from quarantine in a few days.

W. S. Taylor, manager of the Chewaucan Land and Livestock Co., came down from the ranch Monday and returned Tuesday. Alex Fitzpatrick returned with him and will hereafter hold a position on the big ranch, having resigned his position as clerk for the Lakeview Mercantile company.

J. S. Field is hauling rock for a two-story building on his lot just north and adjoining the L. O. O. F. building. It will be built either of stone or brick, probably of stone if a good quarry can be found near town. The building will be 36 x 70 feet, and the upper story will be used for a public hall.

Hotel Lakeview has been crowded to its utmost capacity for more than a week, and when big crowds of timber seekers arrive a great amount of skirmishing has to be done to find beds for them. Many citizens come to the rescue however, and throw open their doors to accommodate the weary travelers.

What a howl has gone up from everybody on account of the forest reserve grab in Lake county. Every stick of timber from the California line on both sides of Goose Lake, north to Summer Lake, has been withdrawn from settlement. No doubt people who have been tardy in taking up timber land will be considerably disappointed.

Attend the Auction Sale of Schminck's Household goods next Saturday at one o'clock P. M.

The Warner Valley Stock Co., has purchased the grey stallion Shafter from the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Co. This horse which is making the season in Lakeview in charge of B. W. Farrow, is a large and beautiful full blooded horse, and will continue the season in Lakeview.

Harry Dolph, a son of the late Senator Dolph, of Portland, arrived in Klamath Falls Sunday evening. He has been a student in the University of Oregon the past two years, but owing to ill health, he deemed it advisable to give up his studies for a time, and will enjoy a several weeks' vacation in Klamath and Lake counties.—Express.

The New Pine Creek base ball nine came up Sunday and won another game from the Lakeview boys. It was an apparently easy matter for them to run up scores, as the score stood 22 to 7 when the game ended. It is very likely that the State Line boys will tell the Lakeview nine to "go and get a reputation" before they will play them again.

Among the settlers interested in the Warner land cases now before the land office, who have been here the past week, are: Duke Bennett, Andy Morris, Wm. Maze, T. B. Wakefield, Thos. Ferris, J. E. Walker, Chas. Wallace, S. E. Sloan, P. E. Taylor, J. M. Messner, Wm. Cooper, J. L. Morrow, Ed Calderwood, Ed Dunnavin, N. M., Lewis, A. D. and L. D. Frakes.

The only cases of small pox reported in Klamath Falls are the three original ones, and they have recovered says the Express. It has been two weeks since these cases first developed, and since, every precaution has been taken to prevent the disease spreading. No alarm, whatever, is felt for another outbreak, and the town is considered free from the malady.

The 31 anniversary of the Degree of Honor was duly celebrated last Friday night. The Lakeview and New Pine Creek A. O. U. W. lodges were in attendance, and they had a swell time after the Degree had several initiations. Music followed by a big banquet was the program. The hungry printers of The Examiner have cause to remember the young ladies who had the supper in charge, for a generous donation of ice cream and cake.

Standing in a mill pond with the water up to his neck, where he had gone to escape a forest fire, Walter Boyd, part owner of Hat's Shingle Mill, near Pigeon, Pa., was burned to death. A tank of oil exploded and the burning fluid covered the man. When the fire swept in from all points the other members of the crew fled in terror, Boyd deciding to remain until the last moment. The oil tank which exploded stood on the bank near the pond.

The Woodmen of the World annually decorate the graves of their deceased brothers. The Lakeview lodge this year will take advantage of this event to unveil the monument over the grave over their deceased brother J. K. Snider. June 7th, is the day selected to march out to the cemetery, and will probably be joined in the procession by the A. O. U. W. Lodge. The teams of the lodges will appear in uniform and the Lakeview band will furnish appropriate music.

The Celaryville Record in speaking of T. B. Walker, the Multo Millionaire lumber baron, who it is said intends building a railroad from Red Bluff to Modoc county, advises all parties in Modoc and Lake counties who erect buildings, to put them on wheels so they can be pulled out of the way of the railroad track when it comes along. And The Examiner cautions pedestrians to keep their weather eye open for fear they get hit with a railroad rumor, the air seems to be full of them from one year to another.

AYRES, WHITWORTH & AYRES

Sheriff Dunlap Saturday, as per notice published in The Examiner, sold all the personal and real estate of the late Benj. Warner, of New Pine Creek. The 80 acres of farm land was sold to J. H. Leeham for $2,500. This land adjoins the latter's place at Kelley Creek on the south. The house and lot at New Pine Creek was sold to A. M. Gallagher, for $300 Hartzog & Gibbons purchased several notes for $900. The residue from the sale of the property and all money on hand at the time of Mr. Warner's death will escheat to the state of Oregon, as he had no known relatives.

Notice to Public.
People are notified not to disturb or carry off any of my property in the vicinity of the salt marsh. Any one so doing will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
