His Last Hope Realized. [From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Okiahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after forfrom the griddle. Grover simply tune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which together with a very severe diarrhoea, which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Cohe, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a list hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grat-ful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For Sale at Beall's Drug Store.
