The Indians are the only hay breakers in these parts. They can be seen most any day with loads of young ducks carrying them to their camps for "heap big eatum."

J. C. Dodson and son Leo, and James Wakefield came over from Big Valley last Thursday with a bunch of 22 head of horses, Jim had sold to Roberts, the horsebuyer.

Zac Whitworth came in from his camp on the head of Sprague river Thursday last, with a badly swollen hand, caused by the bite of some insect. It was not serious, and medical assistance soon fixed him up.

Mrs. Maggie Mulkey was here from Davis Creek last Wednesday with her nephew, Harry Sheehy, who a few days previous had his arm broken by being thrown from a horse. Dr. Ridson was compelled to put the young man under the influence of chloroform while setting the arm, as both bones were broken and it was a very painful injury.—New Era.

The $50 that was sent by the local Woodmen of the World lodge to the relief of the Heppner sufferers, was returned last week as not needed. When it comes to overdoing things in the way of liberality, Oregon can come as near doing it as any other state. The way the money rolled in to the relief of those sufferers wasn't slow and it continued to roll in long after the committee in charge yelled enough.

We notice from the Lake County Examiner that J. A. Boggs, recently of Prineville, has located in Lakeview for the purpose of practicing his profession. Friend Boggs, who formerly resided in Duluth, Minn., where he earned for himself a reputation as the foremost title and land attorney of the northwest has of late taken an especial interest in the development of Central Oregon and Lakeview citizens are to be congratulated in having a man of his ability in their community. We will venture to say that he has no superior in land law practice in Oregon.—Des Chutes Echo.

Galleo's first telescope was made from part of a lead water pipe, in each end of which he cemented common spectacle glasses.

California farm for sale at a big bargain. 100 acres fenced and cross fenced. Cost present owner $10,500 but will be sold for $5000; 1/3 down and balance on easy payments. Inquire at this office.

In America alone 30,000 automobiles will be placed on the market during the present year, which will only supply half the demand.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price.

A slum inspector told the Glasgow municipal commission on the housing of the poor that on some occasions he had found families sleeping in tiers—the parents on the floor, then a mattress, and a layer of child's ren on the top.

Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home.

A Polk county paper advertises a "full-blood Durham cow giving 10 quarts of milk, a riding plow, three tons of straw and a lot of household furniture." Send us that cow, we will strain the output and sell it to the second-hand man.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes.

After picnicking under a haystack a party of holiday makers near Mantauban, France, left an empty ginger beer bottle standing up on the ground. The sun's rays became focused through the glass and set the stack alight. It was burned to the ground.

Whorton & Smith's Palace continues to be the popular club room. If you are looking for a man you will likely find him at the Palace. George and Fent always treat their patrons well. Latest periodicals. Private club room.

At the time of the Roman occupation of Britain five distinct species of dogs were there, most of which can with certainty be identified with those of the present day. They were the house dog, the greyhound, the bulldog, the terrier and the slowhound.

Not more than 350 square miles of territory are under cultivation in henequin or sisal hemp, yet on this small area is produced the fiber that literally blinds the wheat harvests of the world. It is used alike in Minnesota and Argentina, in Siberia and Egypt.

As the outcome of much painstaking investigation the existence has been demonstrated of a class of human beings called moral imbeciles. Their essential characteristic is complete moral insensibility, revealed by a total absence of repugnance to the suggestion of crime before the deed.

The cave dwellers of Mexico can run a distance of 170 miles at a stretch, going at a slow trot, running steadily and constantly. Frequently a letter has been carried from Guazaparis to Chihuahua, a distance of over 600 miles, in five days, the carrier living all the time on a simple diet of pinole, a finely ground corn mixed with water into a thin kind of gruel.

Not only are American mowers, harvesters and hay rakes in use in all the farming districts of south Germany, but smaller agricultural implements, made in America, such as forks, garden and lawn rakes, hoes, shovels, spades and hand potato diggers, have also rapidly grown in favor, and are now on sale in nearly every local hardware store.
