At a meeting of the board of directors of the Lewis and Clark Exposition held in Portland July 24th, H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, was elected president to succeed the late ex-Senator Corbett. H. W. Goode, general manager of the Portland General Electric Company, was chosen director general.

W. R. Brown this week sold the remainder of his Shorthorn and Hereford cattle, comprising 39 head to Arthur Lewis and E. Freuer. Mr. Lewis took 21 head—16 Shorthorns and 5 Herefords—and paid the price of $1500. They are all young cattle which Mr. Brown brought here from Missouri last spring. He will ship in another lot next season.—Klamath Express.

Charles Ennes, who has been working on the XL ranch during haying was the victim of a runaway accident last Thursday that will lay him up for a long time. He was thrown to the ground, and one of the guards of the cycle tore open the calf of his leg in a frightful manner. He was brought to town and Dr. Hall dressed and sewed his wound, he is now resting easy.

The awful, repulsive and dastardly crime of incest, has been charged against Geo. W. Essex of Modoc County, and he now lays in jail at Alturas awaiting his trial on August 10th. The man—if he is a man—is a widower, old and gray-haired and probably weak minded. The charge may be proven false, as the old man protests his innocence.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," but when a grind organ run by a gasoline engine is planted in front of your residence for a week, the "savage breast" gets on the war path, and there are visions of grind organs and shooting galleries sailing high in the air. These visions may come true, so they say, if another grind organ comes to town.

The Herald says: The pension claims of S. P. Moss, Thos. Alford and L. G. Liville, who served in the Indian wars of this state in 1855 and 1856, have been allowed and if there is anything left of the $100,000 State appropriation made by the last legislature, they will now get the amount of their respective claims. If there is nothing left, these gentlemen will have to wait until another appropriation is made.

Stock Inspector J. F. Clarkson and County Clerk A. W. Manring went to Silver Lake Sunday. Inspector Clarkson was called there to examine the stage horses that ply between Silver Lake and Prineville. The horses were taken with a disease that resembles glanders, and Clarkson had them quarantined. One of the horses died Friday, and it is likely they will all have to be killed to keep the disease from spreading.

A camping party consisting of E. C. Ahlstrom and wife, T. S. Handley and wife, the Misses Ollie and Edna Heryford and Ruby Wendell, and A. H. Hammersly, went out early Monday morning for a two week's outing on the headwaters of Sprague river. The fishing and hunting in that vicinity are reported to be exceedingly good, and we can expect a rare treat on their return of some choice venison steaks and trout.

Staging in the early mining camp days was recalled Tuesday evening when the Southern stage arrived with a Wells Fargo & Co., Express messenger aboard with a sawed off shot gun across his lap. A. A. Burke, one of the company's trusted messengers was the gentleman who came along with a small amount of treasure that was being shipped in. It would not have been healthy for any one to try to hold up the stage, as Burke looked as if he might shoot.

Walter Sherlock had a mixup with a hay rake and a barb wire fence last Thursday that might have proven fatal, and as it was, it required the services of Dr. Hall to take several stitches in the back of Walter's head. His hand was also badly lacerated. The accident occurred when Walter was driving through the gate of Reid Bros. field and one wheel of the rake struck a post and broke the tongue. The horses started to run and the stub end of the tongue stuck in the ground, throwing the rake and Walter high into the air, the latter alighting on a barb wire fence with the result as stated.

Postmaster Wilcox took a trip down Goose Lake Valley one day last week, and he noted that the crops looked much better than had been reported. The wheat crop is short from the fact that the usual acreage was not planted, but there will be good results from what has been sown. On account of the short crop and high prices for barley last year, the farmers have an unusually large acreage of this grain in this year, and the crop will be very good.

Several Chinese cities have erected temples in honor of Li Hung Chang. His tomb also has the form of a temple. Two of its inscriptions are: "All countries in the world mourn him" and "He changed heaven and revolutionized the earth."

A dispatch from Sacramento dated July 27th says: Twenty prisoners at Folsom broke away this morning killing four guards. Took Warden and several guards with them. Probably much blood will be shed before they are recaptured.

Bryan's Sister in Ashland.

Attorney F. S. Allen of Lincoln, Neb., returned last week from Klamath Falls, where he adjusted the insurance on the life of the late Dr. F. D. Reames for the Modern Woodmen and to look after timber business. Mrs. Allen accompanied him and enjoys the distinction of being the sister of Wm. J. Bryan, presidential candidate of the democratic party in 1896 and 1900. Mr. Allen will locate Senator Dolliver on a timber land claim in Northern California before they return East.

To Sheeplemen.

Sheeplemen should be careful about taking any sheep out of bands that are infected with scab. Sheep that have not been dipped twice, are not dipped according to law, and must not be mixed with clean sheep. One band was held up lately and dipped. Be careful about the bucks. A word to the wise is sufficient.
