Fred Stevens, who has been holding a position on the Herald, went up to Silver Lake last week to meet his wife, who came out from Minnesota to file on a timber claim.

The following officers of Lakeview Lodge, No. 63 I. O. O. F., were installed last Saturday night by D. D. G. M., W. J. Moore; N. G., A. W. Manning; V. U., S. F. Fletcher; Secretary, A. Y. Beach; Warden, N. D. Andell.

Walter Dyer received another letter from Andy Devine at San Francisco, who has had to undergo another operation on his arm. He is also taking massage treatment to loosen and reduce the stiffened muscles of the arm.

Al Farrow who has been driving on the northern stage for some time, has been confined to his bed for a week from an affection of the throat in the nature of quinsy. It was found necessary to have an operation performed on his throat.

G. Sherman Easter received a telegram from San Francisco Tuesday stating that his mother had received a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Easter and wife leave this (Thursday) morning for the city. His mother is 79 years old, and it is feared that she will not recover.

P. Martinez, a cigar drummer, has been here several days the past week representing his father's cigar factory at Tampa, Florida. Mr. Martinez is a Cuban, having been born in Havana. He says he hopes to see the day when Cuba will be annexed to the United States.

Another stage runaway was narrowly averted Saturday, when the driver of the Southern was unloading in front of the express office. The driver grabbed one rein and run the team around in a circle in the street for awhile, when the team made a straight shoot for the brewery and kegged up.

J. E. Bernard & Son have purchased the hardware stock and tinners tools from T. J. Magilton, and have fixed up a tin shop in the rear of their brick store. Mr. Nelson Wilber, a first-class tinner and gunsmith, has been engaged to conduct that department of their ever growing business.

Mrs. Andy Lane, of Harrisbury, a former resident of this place and Miss Estella Pane of the same locality, arrived in town last Sunday evening. Mrs. Lane is a sister of George and J. M. Small of this valley with whom she is visiting. Miss Payne is visiting her brother, Frank Payne.—Silver Lake Bulletin.

Allen & Lafollett of Prineville are bringing 300 of their thoroughbred Rambouillet and Delaine rams to Lake county to sell this summer. The enviable record of these breeds of sheep for stock purposes and fine fleeces is well known by all sheep raisers, and no doubt they will be eagerly sought for.—Paisley Post.

Petitions are being gotten out at Silver Lake to be circulated throughout Lake, Klamath and Crook counties, protesting against the wholesale forest reserve in these counties. The petition is a good one, and should be signed by every one who is against the bottling up of this county as derogatory to the stock interests and the development of the county.

E. S. McCarthy, of Silver Lake was in the city Sunday and Monday says the Prineville Journal. Mr. McCarthy expects to lay in a stock of liquid refreshments from one of our local dealers while here, which he intends to use in starting a gallon house with at that place. Silver Lake has been a dry town for some time but that state of affairs will soon be changed.

The commissioner of patents has made the statement that he will not issue any patents on so called "perpetual motion" machines, and that there is no patent on one, and that no patent on any part of one has been issued for over forty years.

W. R. Hammersly came in from his ranch west of Drews Valley Saturday, to look after a power wood-saw that had been received for him by Bernard & Son. Bill is going into the wood business on a large scale this fall. He already has contracts for about 500 cords of wood.

Mrs. Della Cobb and daughter, Essie, and Miss Ellen Cobb, who have been in Oakland for some time, returned to Lakeview last Saturday. They hurried home expecting to find Mrs. Cobb's brother, Geo. Hankins, quite ill but they found him in pretty fair health. They were misinformed by someone in Oakland.

Parties stopping over on tickets for the occasion of the Grand Army of the Republic Reunion to be held in San Francisco must leave Nevada for San Francisco on or before September 30th, reaching San Francisco by October 10th. They must leave San Francisco by October 10th and reach their home in the east by October 15th. 31-2t.

In accordance with the wish of the late Senator Ingalls his widow has placed at his grave one of the huge red bowlders with which the Kansas prairies are strewn. The stone weighs five tons and bears a bronze tablet with the following inscription selected from Senator Ingalls' work, "Blue Grass": "When the fitful fever is ended and the foolish wrangle of market and forum is closed grass heads over the scar which our descent into the bosom of the earth has made and the blanket of the infant becomes the blanket of the dead."

Joaquin Miller in Ashland.

Joaquin Miller, the "Bard of the Sierras," arrived in Ashland yesterday afternoon from his home near San Leandro, Cal., and came to join the Crater Lake excursion which leaves the Rogue River Valley next week says the Tidings. Mr. Miller is as picturesque in appearance as ever, walks with as sprightly a step and does not appear a day older than when he was in Jackson county about three years ago. It will be recalled that his presence at Chautauqui was prevented by the condition of his mother's health, who lives near him in his California home.

Joint Installation.

A joint meeting of the local W. O. W. Camp and Circle was held Wednesday of last week for the purpose of installing the two sets of officers. After the business of the evening was completed, they repaired to the banquet room where ice cream and cake were served. Following were the officers installed in the Camp: P. C. C., E. F. Cheney; C.
