R. F. McConaughy and James Williams, administrator of the estate of Mart McConaughy, were here from Ft. Bidwell, in attendance at the meeting of the Warner Valley Stock company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norin entertained a number of friends at their home Tuesday night. Vocal and instrumental music and games were the program of entertainment and music for the evening.

E. W. Follett, postmaster and merchant at New Pine Creek, has sold out his business to Lemon & Hartzog of the state line town, and has moved with his family to Point Richmond, Cal., where he expects to locate.

James Meade of the Georgia Harper Co., who have been playing in Burns for some time, was in Lakeview Monday on his way to Alturas where he expects to reorganize his troupe, and will open the season at the fair at that place.

A human being, though resembling an Orang Outang, blew into town Monday evening, having been ordered to move on by the Alturas authorities. Such filthy trash should be kept moving until they come to the jumping off place.

Mrs. Della Cobb and daughter Essie, Miss Ellen Cobb, and Miss Pearl Frankl, start this morning for Oakland and San Francisco. The Cobbs go to Oakland where Miss Essie will enter school, and Miss Frankl returns to her home in San Francisco.

J. L. Morrow returned from Salem last week, where he went in the interest of the Warner Valley Settlers. He seemed well pleased with his visit, and feels assured that the settlers cause is being viewed in the proper light by Governor Chamberlain.

W. J. Moore is equipping his law office in an up-to-date manner. Not only has he received an addition to his law library, and a new case for the books, but a new roll-top oak desk has been added, which is equipped with a disappearing typewriter shelf.

Robt. McKee and family and Miss Alice McGrath started yesterday on a several weeks camping trip to Crater Lake and other points. Miss Ethel McKee will proceed to Eugene when they reach the railroad, where she will begin a term of school at the state Normal.

Dr. Geo. M. Kober, formerly of Ft. Bidwell, but now a resident of Washington City, and one of the stockholders of the Warner Valley Stock Co., was in Lakeview several days first of the week, in attendance at the meeting, and shaking hands with old friends.

F. O. Ahlstrom and wife, H. R. Heryford, Mrs. Lem Heryford and Clarence Snider will leave today for Ashland. They will return via Crater Lake. Lottie Ahlstrom will come up from San Francisco and join the party at Ashland and return to Lakeview with them.

Zink Hoyt, a recent arrival from Shasta valley, has bought of J. W. Hamaker, a 40-acre tract, situated opposite the ranch of G. W. Smith. The price was $35 per acre. Mr. Hoyt will move his house across the irrigating ditch and make other improvements.—Klamath Republican.

The Water Company turned water from their spring into the pipes Monday night, and the water now comes down to within a short distance above the old dam, and is turned into the creek again. The result is an increase in the flow of water for consumers. Water had begun to be a scarce article, and it was found necessary to turn the water in before the pipe was all laid.

Judge Snider has been sojourning in Chewaucan, where the mosquito bites are not considered a torture, and wind storms are like whispers. The sun rays are like kisses, and the moon beams shoot out like arrows from cupid's bow. The Judge had better look out and not get in front of a beam or he'll get shot.

P. H. Westmorland, wife and three sons, unexpectedly dropped in from Washington, on a visit to the family of Lee Beall. Mrs. Beall and Mrs. Westmorland are sisters, and they had not seen each other for twenty years. Mr. W., is looking through this country with a view to locating a colony of people from his state.

The camping party who went over to the middle fork of Sprague river on a fishing and hunting trip returned Sunday, having had a good time and were quite successful. They were: E. C. Ahlstrom and wife, T. S. Handley and wife, the Misses Ollie and Edna Heryford, Ruby Wendell and A. H. Hammersley.

The weather man took a sudden notion last Friday to warm things up, and the consequence was the thermometer took a shot upward. Previous, the warmest day of the season was 90, and there had been several of them, but Friday it was 99, Saturday it was 97, Sunday 95, Monday 91, Tuesday 90 again, and yesterday 87.

A great many people are under the impression that grapes will not grow or mature in this county. W. Bayley showed a representative of The Examiner some large vines on his place that are loaded down with fine grapes that will soon be ripe. There are very few kinds of fruits that will not grow in Lake county with proper care.

Last week Dan Maloy purchased for Louie Gerber, the following bands of mutton sheep. They were mostly 2 year old wethers, but a few of them were yearlings. The price paid was $2.50 and $3. From Geo. Boydston, 300; C. W. Dent 600; C. A. Rehart 800; P. M. Combs 500, and 800 more will likely be purchased from Thos. Flook.

Louie Brantlaecht, the brewer, has made more and better beer this year than heretofore. The average number of gallons per month that he makes is 1800, but last month over 2000 gallons of beer were turned out of the Lakeview Brewery. From 20 to 40 dozen bottles per week is the amount of bottled beer that is turned out. Louie is getting to be an expert on beer making.
