

FOREST RESERVE TIMBER.

In January, 1902, the Interior Department issued the following circular of information regarding the "free use" of forest reserve timber.

- 1. The matter is a privilege, and not a right. It may be refused to any person.
2. Who can get timber under free use provisions of law: It is usually granted to settlers, farmers, prospectors, and others residing within or in the neighborhood of a forest reserve.
3. Who cannot get it: It is refused to companies, corporations, sawmill parties, and owners of large establishments, who require larger quantities and are expected to purchase; and to non-residents of the state in which the reserve is located.
4. How much is given, and by whom: Permits for an amount not exceeding $20 in stumpage value may be granted by the forest supervisor. Permits for a larger amount, and within the stumpage value of $100, are granted only by the Secretary of the Interior.

- 5. How often the same person can apply: Not oftener than once a year.
6. How long a permit holds good: Six months from the date when it was issued; or less time, in the discretion of the forest supervisor.
7. What can be obtained: All kinds of timber; generally dry fire wood, dry poles, and logs; also, if really needed, green timber.

How obtained: (a) Application must be made to the forest supervisor; (b) blank form of application is furnished by the forest officers, and is filled out and signed by the applicant. (If necessary, the forest officer will lend assistance in filling out the blank application; (c) the timber must be located by a forest officer before any cutting is done.

- 9. Terms of this privilege: (a) Only the timber applied for can be cut. For instance, no green timber may be taken if dry wood is applied for, and it must be measured, either standing or in the pile, before being hauled away; (c) no unmarked live timber can be cut; (d) there must be no cutting across the line of the area assigned—cutting across the line is trespass; (e) the rules about cleaning up tops and brush must be obeyed—the cutting area must be left in good clean condition; (f) the rules generally governing forest reserves must be observed; (g) the wood, timber, or other material derived from it is to be used only at the place stated in the application. The use of it elsewhere, and especially the sale of it, makes the cutting a trespass, and the applicant becomes liable to suit and is always debarred thereafter from the privileges of free use; (h) the cutting of the timber by a local mill is permissible; but the sawing must be paid in cash and cannot be done on shares. Moreover, the sawing and hauling of the lumber must be done in a manner required by the forest officer, and in such a way as to enable him to determine whether or not the timber and lumber are really used in the place and manner promised in the application; (i) in placing a valuation on timber given under the "free-use" act, $1 per M for timber, green or dry, and 25 cents per cord for fuel wood, will be the minimum price considered; (k) applications for "shakes," etc., involving a wasteful use of timber, will be refused whenever a more economical utilization and satisfactory cleaning up of the tops and limbs is not guaranteed.

Sick Headach.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick-headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. Fun With Sheets.

O. H. P. Sheets, a popular commercial traveler who has made Woodland for the past twenty years was the victim of a good natured joke Friday afternoon. Mr. Sheets wandered into Murray's hardware store as is his custom. He found Mr. Murray out and helping himself to an easy chair in the office, leaned back and was soon fast asleep. In due time he emitted a soft gentle snore which attracted the attention of the boys in the store, and "when the cats are away the mice will play." One was sent down the street for a camera while others busied themselves fixing the place for the photographer. "Dead soldiers" were used plentifully as material for decoration and the slumbering Sheets was made to appear as though he was "three Sheets in the wind." Bottles to the right of him, bottles to the left of him, in front of him and behind him, all got into the photograph which shows how a fat jolly man can saw wood on a warm day with nothing to bother him.

Copies of the photograph are selling for 25 cents per and the stock has been nearly exhausted. A copy however, was saved to be sent to the original with the compliments of the photographer.—Woodland Mail.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Lee Beall.

Most fishes seek their food by sight, says Professor Edmund Clark Sanford of Clark university in the International Quarterly, and these do not usually notice it by any other sense. But those that are accustomed to find it by smell seldom pay any attention to it when they merely see it.

A Woman's Prayer

It is notable that in the despondency caused by womanly diseases, there seems to many a suffering woman no way of escape from pain except at the price of life itself. It would be sad to record such a story of struggle and suffering except for the fact that in such dire distress many a woman has found a way back to health and happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The one and only remedy for leucorrhoea, female weakness, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, so absolutely specific and sure in curing these common ailments of women, as to warrant its makers in offering to pay, as they hereby do, the sum of $500 reward for a case of the above maladies which they cannot cure.

"Your medicine almost raised me from the dead," writes Mrs. Edwin H. Gardner of Egypt, Plymouth Co., Mass. "Box 14. My wife was like brick dust, and I had pain all over me, and such a dragging feeling it seemed I could not do my house work. One day I found a little box. I read it and wrote to Dr. Pierce, and in a few days received an answer. I decided to try his medicine, and to-day I am a well woman. I have no backache, no headache, no pain at all. I used always to have headaches previously to the monthly period, and such pain that I would roll on the floor in agony. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and was completely cured."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing just as good. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers; or 31 stamps for the cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
