The Committee on races for tals

Asmus Tonningsen has gone to Quartz valley to bring his sheep to Mulkey's corral, where he will separate the lambs preparatory to feeding them this winter.

Prof. William Vallandingham and wife arrived from Pendleton Tuesday. Prof. Vallandingham is the principal of the Lakeview school for the coming year.

G. Sherman Easter has returned from San Francisco where he has been visiting his sick mother. Mrs. Easter is improving nicely and the doctors hold out hopes for her complete recovery.

The Reservation Indians took a trip to Bly to attend a dance, one day last week. Too much fire water, plenty big drunk. Men, boys, women and girls had to be drawn home in wagons.

The Oregonian sent a message to The Examiner this week for a Photo of Mrs. Amelia Wilcox. She has been appointed as one of the Committee to represent Lake County at the Oregon State Fair.

Bill Moss offers a substantial reward to the man who corrais the big woodrat that are all the strings from his saddle at the Loveless corral the other night. Dan Malloy has started out for the rats scalp. He'll get it.

The Reno Steam Laundry has established an agency at Bieber's store, and beginning with Sept. 17, the basket will leave every Thursday and return Saturday of the following week. Good work guaran-

It is reported that Dr. Demorest is married. We have not yet learned who the lady is. Some of our citizens have met Mrs. Demorest and assure us that she will be a useful and pleasant addition to Lakeview society. Congratulations doctor.

Rev. Black of Burns preached in the Baptist shurch last Sunday. The preacher is a pleasant man to meet but as a preacher his mannerisms in the pulpit attract the attention of his congregation more than the style or matter of his discourse.

Dr. H. J. Winters graduate Optician of Oakland will remain in Lakeview at the Hotel Lakeview until Sept. 13. He will be at Bly on the 15th and Bonanze 16th and 17th. He is looking for the most difficult cases in glass fitting, and will make W. A. Wilshire, Lumber Dist. regular trips to this city.

A number of our young people had an enjoyable time on Monday 1903. evening at the residence of Mrs. Jonas Norin. The young people held a farewell party in honor of Misses Laura and Genie Snelling who with their mother will reside in Monmouth this winter where the girls will attend school. A good time was had singing, playing games etc. The party broke up toward the "wee sma" hours.

J. A. Yates and Miss May Lighty editor of the Alturas New Era were united in marriage by Recorder Snider some months ago. The couple kept the marriage from their friends until the other day when formal announcement of the wedding was made. We cannot understand why the young people were so bashful about it. Maybe the friends of the young people objected or perhaps the busy life of the bride forbade a long honeymoon trip, and not wishing to be disturbed in her editorial work, kept the husband courting all this time. Howevernow that the cat is out of the bag we extend congratulations to the young people wishing them many happy
