

The Man in the Red Vest.

A few evenings ago a few of the boys were playing Klondike, when the man who was running the game had occasion to go outside for a few moments leaving the game in charge of an onlooker. Upon the return of the man he found that the onlooker he left in charge was $25.00 short. It seems that a man with a red vest came in and won the money (?). He has not been seen in town since. These mysterious, red vested fellows ought to be watched. In Ireland the peasant says that the Devil frequently appears in a frock coat and red vest. Now perhaps his majesty has followed the poor boys over to Oregon and is just appearing once in a while to get a little money to keep things going. We wish we could do the trick in the office as handily as our Uncle from the other world seems to have done this.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Beall's Drug Store.

Didn't "Trun" no Rock.

The Sultan tells Secretary Hay that he is not the fellow who "trun the rock." We suspect him, however, and will keep our tars watching him until he becomes a good boy. The European squadron will be at his door in a day or two. Telegrams from our officials in that country say the Vice-Consul is uninjured, but that he had a close call. The Turk denies a knowledge of complicity in the affair, saying, it was an accidental shooting at a wedding held in a village of that country. It seems that when the boys were holding a charivari that the gun was accidentally discharged—nit.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Lee Beall.

William Gunther's Boy Sick.

The Klamath Falls Express says that Mrs. William Gunther, who is in Portland with her son, Calton, who was thought to be a sufferer from serious heart trouble when taken to the city last week, writes home that the physicians say he will recover. Nervous trouble is responsible ailing. Will's many friends in Lakeview will be glad to learn that nothing very serious is the matter with his child. It was thought for a long time that he would not recover from his trouble but he is improving nicely now.

Mr. Schalters of the United States immigration bureau has said: "One-third of the Jews of Russia already own one-half of the property, although the ratio of Christians is only one to twenty."

New Chair of Science at Columbia.

Now that Columbia College has chosen Frank Erne, the world's lightweight champion pugilist, to teach the manly art to the students, boxing will be lifted above the level of the prize ring and the goody-goody morality teachers will have to drop another paragraph from their old sermons.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Lee Beall's Drug Store.

A correspondent of the Scientific American recently passed through a peculiar experience. He tasted a small fraction of a grain of radium. It acted as a powerful stimulant, affected both the heart and kidneys. It was several hours before his pulse became normal. It affected the mind also producing hallucinations.

Why Ships Are Called She.

It was in one of the public schools of Philadelphia. The teacher of a primary class was reading a lesson in dictation which scores of busy pencils were transferring to slates. "The ship was sailing down the river to the sea. She had all her sails set," read the teacher. "Please, teacher, why are ships called 'she'?" asked a small boy from the end of the room. The teacher dropped the book for a moment. "Does any boy know why a ship is called 'she'?" the teacher queried. There was a second's pause. Then a little boy's hand went up. "Why?" asked the teacher. "Because it takes men to manage her!" was the sage reply.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Very Extraordinary.

A young lady was introduced to an old lady as "sister of So-and-so, the artist." Instantly the exclamation followed: "I should have known the relationship, my dear, by the resemblance. Why, it is positively startling! I never saw two faces more exactly alike in contour and"

"But," interrupted the girl in a meek, small voice, "I am only his sister-in-law."

"Which makes it all the more remarkable," continued the old lady without the least embarrassment or hesitation.

A Good Reason.

The reading lesson was about a shipwreck. A message announcing the sinking condition of the ship had been inclosed in a bottle and flung overboard.

"Now," said the teacher, wishing to test the intelligence of his class, "why was the letter put in a bottle?"

A hand went up. "Well, Tommy?" "Cos there was no post office."

Dreaded Anthrax Near Reno.

It is reported in the Reno Evening Gazette that the dreaded "Anthrax" has appeared with fatal effect among some of the dairy cattle around Reno. If this is so, a sharp lookout ought to be kept on all stock—horses or cattle, coming from that vicinity, and a rigid quarantine established. It would be a serious matter for Lake county if its thousands of stock should become affected.

LIGHT AND DARK.

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthful from a sickly woman. The healthful woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes.

The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer cannot smile and sing. Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, prolapsus, or falling of womb, or from leucorrhoea who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success Dr. Pierce would like to hear from such person—and it will be to her advantage to write as he offers, in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladies which he cannot cure.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1804 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician. I was induced to ask Dr. Pierce's advice. I then took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand of comfort. For I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound.
