Library Books Must Be Returned

We wish to call the attention of the patrons of our public schools, to the following list of library books that have not been returned to the library.

It is quite essential to have a good library in connection with the school, and in order to have this we ask every patron to examine their home libraries and see if any of the public school library books are among them. It may be you have forgotten to return them, perhaps some one has left them with you when they moved from town. A set of five volumes of Cooper's works and a set of seven volumes of E. P. Roe's works are missing, will you help us to recover as many of these books as possible?

We will soon have more money for books but will not know whether to buy the numbers missing until we get all the out side books that are in the city. The following 130 volumes are missing, also 12 text books belonging to the Library.

Joyful Tidings, Ostler Joe, Deer Slayer, Pathfinder, Prairie, Pioneers, Mohicans, From Jest to Earnest, Nature's Serial Story, A Face Illuminated, Barriers Burned Away, A Knight of the XIX Century, A Day of Fate, His Sombre Rival, The Female Spy, Children of the Abbey, Girls Own Book, Loves Harvest, A Perilous Secret, Heart and Science, Repented at Leisure, The Earls Atonement, Beyond Pardon, Scottish Chiefs, Love Works Wonders, A Woman's Temptation, The choice works of Thomas Hood.
