J. T. Benefiel and family, old residents of Crooked Creek, left town last Thursday morning for Santa Barbara, Cal., by private conveyance. Mr. Benefiel has been under a physician's care for some time with a severe attack of lung trouble and a change of climate is thought to be his only hope for recovery. Should the climate of Santa Barbara prove beneficial, they will reside there permanently.

People from the outlying districts are taking advantage of our excellent public schools this term and all the available houses in town have been occupied. There is an increasing demand for more and it seems to us that a few neat cottages built for the use of the renting public would be a good proposition for some one who has some money to invest.

King Edward's proficiency as a linguist was strikingly illustrated during his recent visit to Paris. At a private dinner given by M. Loubet, the French president read a very formal speech. The king of England got up immediately after and delivered without a note an admirable speech in French. Everybody was surprised when the native ruler spoke in his own tongue with elaborate preparation and the English sovereign spoke in the tongue of the Frenchman in promptu.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all these facts are taken into consideration it is surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it.
