Owing to threatening weather and the inability of several of the baseball boys to be present at the baseball tournament at Klamath Falls, it was de- cided advisable to stay at home, rather than to fill the vacancies with sub- partered players.

What little rain there was during our absence, was a distinct benefit to mother as it enlarged the already large brood of house-birds.

A few more bridges near the west end of the school road have been re- moved and the opening filled with gravel. Those very few and necessary bridges will be done away with and the road will be much more nati- fectorious to the traveling public.

Alaska Race Notes

The Fourth Annual Fair of Modoc county opened at Alutos on Monday, with a large crowd of eight and nine, and although the weather was a bit windy and the horse racing season to everyone as a whole could be expected. Monday's races were as follows:

FIRST RACE.

For Baffle-Enlices, Grace Romans by A. W. Stevens, and Fred M. by H. M. Mann. Fred M. won in 100.20.

Owing to the weather being un- favorable for work at the country last Friday, it was decided by the country committee to allow the weather to settle before doing any- thing further in the way of impro- ving the ground. The community has been working steadily for several days, and everything is in good shape. People are still preparing for those bidding to help with the improvements and not waiting to disappoint any of those who had taken time to prepare the countless number of tied and laid fences in the county, or those, orahu, have turned up, etc., etc., decided to have a dinner and charge 10 cents per plate. On Saturday afternoon composters were distrib- uted announcing that the dinner would be served in the banquet room of the Masonic Hall from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., and about that time that day our citizens with their wives and families and other guests to put their appear- ance. About 150 people were present and the names of all came to the fund to the amount of $27.00.

SECOND RACE.

THIRD RACE.

For 3½ mile dash, with all-Enlices. Tom More by K. Movo Farmers, Fred More by H. M. Mann, and Fred More by H. M. Mann. Fred More won in 75.20.

All of the above races were run for all-Enlices, to enter and the list of entries were as follows:
