HERBERT B. BOWEN, TO WHOM VENEZUELAN HAVEN PINNED THEIR FAITH

Venezuelan soon to place the utmost confidence in the ability of Herbert B. Bowen, United States minister to that republic, to manage the internal affairs of the nation which has been plagued. Bowen, who arrived in Caracas, the capital, at the end of last month, has already shown the Bulgarian “wizard” by the leaving officials of the Venezuelan capital.

May Soon Be Captured

Harry Egbert, the eyewitness who identified John C. Saxton as the murderer of Robert J. West, was arrested on charges of perjury by Secretary of Justice. Egbert was charged with perjury when he admitted to the murdered man's lawyer, Mr. C. S. Miller, that he had witnessed the killing and had failed to report it.

New Trial

Egbert and his wife were at the home alone and as the two men entered Egbert opened the front door from behind the corner of the building. West was shot in the back and died in a short time. After the Egberts entered the house, a man named Egbert emerged from the building and was shot by a police officer. The Egberts were taken to the hospital for treatment.

The local authorities have been advised of the situation, and it is not likely that they will give further action. The Egberts have been advised that they will not be charged with any crime.

The case has been referred to the District Attorney, who will take appropriate action.
