Now there are 17 octogenarian members of the reigning families of Europe. The latest to join the list is the Duchess of Modena, a Bavarian princess who was 80 in March. A few years ago there was but one octogenarian sovereign. Now there are four.

A correspondent of the Vienna Zeit writes that, notwithstanding the honors heaped upon Professor Adolf Lorenz in the United States, hardly any attention was paid to him in Mexico. He was not invited to demonstrate his method, and the local German as well as the Mexican doctors kept aloof from him. The Austrian ambassador, Count Hohenwart, however, gave a dinner in his honor.

The public is familiar with paper wheels, paper houses and paper canoes. Now it may hear of paper cigars. This is how they are made: The paper is steeped for some time in large vats filled with a preparation of tobacco juice, but when it has been thoroughly saturated it is pressed and afterwards cut into leaves resembling the real article. At New York there is said to be a factory making these paper leaves as quickly as ever it can turn them out, and it has been said that these cigars have an excellent flavor.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all these facts are taken into consideration it is surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Lee Beall.
