

Additional Local

Mrs. J. Wendell's mother Mrs. H. Williams, accompanied by Fred and Roy Williams, nephews of the former arrived Saturday from Tulare, California on a visit to their relatives here.

G. H. Idol, a recent arrival at Bly from San Francisco, who has charge of Yaden's stage line from Bly to Lakeview, and who leased the Casbeer hotel, has now leased the Fitch hotel, will and conduct both places in the future.

Drs. O. F. Demorest and N. D. Asdell have returned from their professional trip through the northern part of the county and until further notice will be found at their old established parlors in the Daly building.

Mr. Dixon, Government Inspector of Indian Schools, accompanied by his wife, arrived on the Western yesterday. Mr. Dixon has been looking after the schools at Klamath and Yanlax agencies, and today goes to Ft Bidwell.

A fire in Reno, early Monday morning destroyed half a block of wooden shanties on Plaza street, together with the large brick building occupied by Ainley & Son, as a plumbing shop. The loss is estimated at $6,000, partially covered by insurance.

J. Handley, L. Stevens and Bert Tatro left for Warner Valley Tuesday morning. They will proceed to the old Hart ranch, now owned by the 7T corporation, where they will erect a ranch house 40x40 feet and two stories high for that company.

Jonas King, George Whorton, Joe Crawford and Arthur Verling were among those to visit Alturas from Lakeview at the Fair last week. Taking everything into consideration, they express themselves as being very well satisfied with the race meeting.

Miss Lottie Ahlstrom, after a visit of one month to her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Ahlstrom of this city, expects to leave for San Francisco this morning, accompanied by her aunt Mrs. Chas. Coblenz. Miss Ahlstrom will probably spend the winter in Los Angeles.

D. P. Dunn, an expert druggist who has been employed by Lee Beall for the past three months, left on the Southern Stage Tuesday morning accompanied by his wife, for Sacramento, California, to accept a position with Ing & Allee, wholesale druggists of that city.

Ralph Butler, who recently returned to his home at Dallas, after spending the greater part of the Summer with his brother-in-law, Late Conn, has decided to enter the Sanitarium at Hot Springs, Union County, instead of spending the winter at California points as he intended upon leaving here.

Mrs. Helen P. Gatch, of Salem, Grand Worthy Matron of Order Eastern Star is around on her annual tour of inspection of the lodges of the state. A banquet was given in honor of Mrs. Gatch on Tuesday evening at the Masonic Hall in Lakeview and on Wednesday morning she departed for Paisley accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Steiner and Mrs. F. E. Harris.

Geo. H. Ayres, who went to Portland in search of Mayor H. C. Whitworth, who has been missing for nearly two months, visited Tacoma and Seattle and other towns, but found no trace of him. His mysterious disappearance has caused much alarm to his family and friends, and Mr. Ayres has returned to Portland to make further search. It is hoped that Mr. Whitworth, whose record heretofore has been unblemished, will turn up safe and sound, but it is greatly feared that something serious has happened to him.

Seventy-five members of the Myrtle Shrine of Portland went to Ashland last Saturday and initiated fifty candidates, among the latter being Geo. H. Ayres, F. B. Evans, Max Whittlesey and A. Y. Beach of Lakeview, and seven from Klamath Falls. The boys report a good time, but do not smile much when asked about the part they took in the street parade dressed in fantastic costumes.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you.

Too Many Wildcats.

Geo. Reid and Louie Brautlecht were out on the Chewaucan for a little hunting trip last week in search of big game, and from all reports, we are under the impression that they found it. They camped at the old Jay Hotchkiss ranch on the edge of the marsh and spent the first day out hunting ducks and geese. As they were returning to the ranch George saw a wildcat dodge through the barn door and suggested to Louie that they capture the "kitten" alive and take him home for a pet. Louie was perfectly willing to undertake the "contract" and the two hunters made a quick sneak for the barn, got inside and barricaded the door. It was quite dark and upon looking around they were confronted by four pair of fiery eyes.

About that time both hunters made a grand rush to get out of a side door and the cats being of the same mind, a general mix-up occurred. After a hard battle Louie succeeded in making his escape and from his perch on a high fence post soon saw George emerge from the door preceded by two large cats.

Investigation revealed the bodies of two of the ferocious animals that had been killed by George in a dispute over the aperture of escape.
