

Additional Local

Judge E. V. Spencer, head of the firm of Spencer & Baker of Alturas and Susanville, is here attending court. He is associated with W. J. Moore in an important water suit.

C. W. Anderson, formerly editor of the Alturas New Era, and at one time worked on the Examiner, now has complete management of the Loyaltonian, the paper he has been foreman of since going to Loyalton.

Wm. Walker accidentally shot a hole through his left hand while hunting in the mountains last Saturday. He came to town and Dr. Steiner dressed the wound Sunday. The wound is not thought to be serious.

John T. Whittle, the government inspector from the irrigation bureau, passed through Lake County without making any investigations, and went on over to Klamath County, where he is looking up some reservoir sites.

Thousands of head of cattle will be wintered on Klamath Marsh the coming winter. Cattle to the number of 12,000 head will be brought there for feed from Jackson, Douglas, Crook, Harney and Lake counties.—Klamath Express.

The jurors who were called to attend the fall term of Circuit Court, who were on hand for the beginning of the term Monday, were well pleased to learn that their services were not needed and were excused by Judge Benson.

Studley & Harris have moved their furniture stock back to the more commodious Sailer building south of the Court house. A large work shop has been added and they will now be better prepared than ever to supply the public wants.

The Alabama Warblers played to a packed house Monday night. The troupe was managed by McKanlass who was here 17 years ago. The show was pronounced fairly good, but the lecture (?) after the show for men only, was a drawing card.

Rev. J. B. Stark preached his inaugural sermon in the Lakeview M. E. church last Sunday to a good sized congregation. His hearers were favorably impressed with his sermon, and no doubt he will meet with success in his new charge.

It is expected that nearly if not $300 will be raised for a base ball purse, to be played for during the races. Several outside nines are expected to be here. Alturas and New Pine Creek nines will come, and possibly Klamath Falls and Silver Lake.

Sim Arthur and wife, who live at the XL ranch at the upper end of Abert Lake, have been spending a few days in town visiting and laying in their winter supplies. Sim bought one of those fine Studebaker wagons at Bernards' to take home with him.

The scarcity of hay in Goose Lake valley is more noticeable this year than ever before, and the price has gone beyond what cattlemen can pay. It is hard to get, but what little is being delivered in Lakeview the farmer is getting $12 per ton for.

Geo. H. Ayres returned from Portland Monday where he went in search of his former partner, H. C. Whitworth, Mayor of Lakeview. Nothing has been heard of Mr. Whitworth since he was seen in the Imperial hotel at Portland shortly after he left Lakeview.

On a recent visit to Ashland we took occasion to visit Dr. Herndon's Sanitarium and Hospital, and found it a very modern institution for the treatment of many diseases. The X-ray machine is a wonder, and treatment by it has proved quite successful. The institution is highly recommended as first class in every particular.

An innovation in the way of hotel accommodations at Bonanza is a great relief to the traveling public. George Morine, a recent arrival, has taken charge of a hotel there, and travelers are now assured of an appetizing meal. Stop at Morine's Hotel when at Bonanza.

District Attorney L. F. Conn was called to Salem last Saturday to make the argument for Lake County before the Supreme Court in the Nelson bond case, which was set for the 20th. Circuit Judge Benson appointed Geo. S. Nickerson as deputy district attorney during Mr. Conn's absence.

Henry Steiner came over from Warner Saturday to have a bruise on his right foot attended to. Some time ago the instep was bruised on a wagon brake in going down hill, and an abscess formed, making it necessary for medical treatment. Dr. Steiner opened the abscess and reduced the swelling, and Henry is now hobbling around with a cane.

A crowd of hungry deer hunters started Monday for a weeks hunting near the Cove. They were Walter Dyer, Harry McGrath, Man Whorton and G. T. Bowman. If they succeed in getting as much venison as they have promised to their friends, the open season had just as well be closed at once, as there would be no game left for any other hunters.

Last Tuesday was the day advertised by the Lakeview Land office for the sale of 80 acres of unsold lands of the abandoned military reserve at Ft. Klamath. It was expected that there would be spirited bidding and that the land would bring at least $20 per acre, as it was situated in the fertile Woodriver valley, but there was only one bidder, Joseph McCoy, whose bid of $10 per acre was accepted by the land office officials here.

Geo. M. Jones of Paisley, had a deed recorded in the Clerk's office Monday for 160 acres of land in Cox Flat. This piece of land belonged to Minnie E. Hopkins, formerly of Lakeview. She having married in the Philippines, a copy of the marriage certificate in Spanish was attached to the deed, and signed by herself, Minnie E. Gale, County Clerk Manning has not yet translated the marriage certificate so as to record it, but he expects to learn the Spanish language in a short time.

Mrs. Helen P. Gatch of Salem, Grand Worthy Matron of the order Eastern Star, mention of whom was made last week, returned to Lakeview last Friday from Paisley, where she was very pleasantly entertained by the Lodge at that place. She remained in Lakeview as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Steiner, and Saturday morning started on her return to Salem, going via Klamath Falls, where she will again be entertained by the Eastern Star lodge at that place. Mrs. Gatch is a representative lady of the order, and was well pleased with her visit here. She is the wife of Claud Gatch of Salem, who was a prominent candidate for nomination for congress on the republican ticket against Hermann.
