The Lake Co. Agricultural Association have arranged to have a saddle race during the races next week. A purse of probably $50 will be given.

Presiding Elder D. T. Summerville arrived Saturday Morning from Roseburg on his quarterly visita to the M. E. Churches of Lake County.

Bring in your old heating stoves and have new things put in them and made good as new. J. E. Bernard & Son.

The New Era is advertising for an Alturas firm a new kind of over shirts for men that has attracted the attention of some Lakeview gentlemen, who are thinking of ordering some.

Grahams Orchestra will furnish music and Madame Omar will tell your fortune at the Milkmaids entertainment Tuesday Nov. 3 1902, at Barry's Opera House. Doors open at 7:30, curtain raises 8:30.

Barry's Opera House next Tuesday night will be the scene of much gaiety and a good time. Beautiful Milkmaids, good music, fine ice cream, red hot coffee and Madame Omar are some of the attractions.

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation calling an extra session of Congress to meet Nov. 9th, to approve the reciprocal commercial convention between the United States and the Republic of Cuba.

D. Y. Knykenhall of Washington, D. C., a representative of the U. S. Census office, arrived in the city Sunday, says the Klamath Republican. He is visiting the different Counties of the state obtaining statistics for his office.

The dance given by the band last Saturday night was a complete success. Music furnished by the entire band was something new for Lakeview dancers, and it was thoroughly appreciated. The band will continue to give Saturday night dances.

J. D. Heryford had the forefinger of his right hand broken below the knuckle, last week. He had roped a steer and when the rope tightened around the horn of the saddle his finger was caught in a loop, and the consequence is that Jim is nursing a very sore finger.

A marriage license was granted last Saturday by County Clerk Manning to L. N. Kelsay of Silver Lake and Georgia Tribon of Paisley. The marriage took place at Paisley last night at the residence of the bride's mother Mrs. Richard Sherlock. Mr. Kelsay is the editor of the Silver Lake Oregonian. The Examiner wishes long life and happiness.

Cresceus broke the world's trotting record of two minutes flat at Wichita, Kan., Oct. 20th, clipping a quarter of a second from Lou Dillon's record. Owner George H. Ketcham drove the stallion. The first quarter was made in 0:30, the half in 0:59, the three-quarter in 1:30, and the mile in 1:58. Lou Dillon smashed the record Saturday making the mile in 1:58.

Will E. Yocum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yocum of Riverside, has been granted a certificate from the University of California to teach mechanical drawing, and has a position in the Polytechnic High School in Oakland. He will graduate next May as electrical engineer. He is a nephew of F. P. Light of this place, his father having been a resident of Lakeview many years ago.

Will D. Bishop got too close to the rear end of a new horse he had just traded for and the result is a broken jaw. His hat blew off and he stooped down by the horse to pick it up when the animal kicked striking him in the jaw with the hock joint. His face was swollen all out of proportion and he has since been going around with it in a sling. Drs. Smith & Steiner fixed the broken jaw.

The election held in Ashland last week on the issuance of $20,000 of bonds to construct mains for a system of sewerage resulted in an endorsement of the bond issue by a vote of nearly five to one. The question of sewerage for the city has been acute for some time and the vote insures the installation of a sewerage system. Last year the proposition was voted down two to one.

T. H. Cloud, proprietor of the Lakeview Soda Works, has just installed a beautiful hot water urn, having just received it from the East. He now prepares all kinds of cold weather drinks, such as Vigoral, Extract of beef, Tomato bollion, Asparox and chicken broth. Always served hot, they are very appetizing, nourishing and invigorating. Once tasted, always liked. There is nothing better for a weak stomach. Call in and sample this new beverage.

C. M. Sain president of the Oregon Potash Co. of Sumner and Abert Lakes, was in Lakeview last Friday on his way to Paisley from Reno. He has come to make his home in Lake County, having sold the Lovelock (Nev.) Tribune, and resigned as postmaster at Lovelock, and will hereafter devote his time and energy to the development of the potash property in this County. Mr. Sain has great faith in the building of a railroad and the ultimate development of Lake County.

There seems to be a great demand for Alfalfa seed here now and ten cents per pound is being offered for it says the Cedarville Record. W. E. Grant, of Sacramento, has been here for the past few days, buying up some and our merchants have also been filling orders. A great deal of seed was destroyed last week by the heavy windstorm, but the increased acreage has brought the amount up to the average, and it is probable that several carloads will be shipped from this valley this fall.

W. J. Moore, editor of the Lakeview Herald, was served with a warrant of arrest last Tuesday night after the night session of Circuit Court and was brought before the court of Common Pleas and department of Brickbates, and was then and there tried and convicted on a charge of criminal libel (?) for publishing an article in his paper derogatory to the character of certain high Court dignitaries, claiming that they had occupied the bald headed row at a show in Lakeview. The jury promptly returned a "true bill."

Charley Musselman had a miraculous escape from being crushed to death one day last week. He was hauling a log from the mountains down toward Drew's Creek when the tongue of the wagon broke, and the broken piece stuck in the ground, which threw the front end of the wagon over, precipitating Charley to the ground, underneath the wagon. The hind wheel passed over his leg above the ankle and over one arm, and he was otherwise bruised about the face and body. He was brought to town and his bruises attended to. One small bone in his leg is thought to be broken but the leg was too badly swollen to tell.
