...School Notes...

Lakeview High School

State Woodcock, Editor

Ray Emerson is absent from school this week on account of sickness.

Ralph Koozer started to school this week.

Bertha Nickerson is absent from school on account of the sickness of her sister.

The school editor for The Examiner is sick this week.

The pupils in Prof. Vallandigham's room were disappointed Friday because they did not get to go to the races.

The algebra class is having a terrible time with their problems.

The program in Miss Sand's room Friday afternoon was very interesting.

Be sure and come Friday.

The old city council met Monday night and transacted all business before them and swore in the new council. Little else was done except to appoint the several committees, such as street, fire, and sanitary committees. The new board enquired into the probable standing of the town, and went up to the electric light plant and made a personal examination of the boiler which was reported to be in bad condition.

John Loftus, of Lakeview, was here Monday, on his way home from the Sacramento valley. He says everything down that way looks very dry, with no feed and hay at from $16 to $20 per ton. Modoc is not such a bad place after all, when you consider the conditions of other places. Here we have plenty of fruit, grain, grub, pasture, hay, cattle, horses, hogs and sheep and the most generous hearted people in the world.—Cedarville Record.
