LAKEVIEW, OREGON, NOV. 19, 1903.

It is announced that President Plaza of Ecuador will come to the United States soon. He will remain long enough to visit the St. Louis Exposition.

The trustees of Princeton university at the annual fall meeting appointed Harry Augustus Garfield of Cleveland, Ohio, son of the late President Garfield, professor of politics.

E. G. Vaughan of Richmond, Ind., has the finest collection of continental currency of any private individual in the country, and it will be exhibited at the St. Louis fair.

Major William H. Hammer, a retired army officer, now living at Omaha, Neb., is one of the few surviving veterans that were at Fort Sumter on that eventful April day 42 years ago.

Captain E. G. Ely, who for two years has been United States recruiting officer in Des Moines, Iowa, has been ordered to be returned to his command in Texas, and left for that post November 1.

Rose Hartwick Thorpe, author of "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," is living at present in LaJolla, Cal. She was born in Indiana in 1850. The poem was first published in the Detroit Commercial Advertiser in 1870.

Monsignore Merry Del Val, who has been appointed secretary of state by Pius X., is half a Spaniard and half an Englishman. He is one of the ablest men in the Catholic church and is said to understand American affairs thoroughly.

Captain Horace Fox, a member of the famous Ringgold battery of light artillery in the Mexican war, is about to leave St. Louis, after a residence of 40 years, to spend the remainder of his days in his native home in Franklin county, Mass.

It is believed that one of the richest preachers in the world resides in Denver. He is A. D. Parker, auditor of the Colorado & Southern road, who, though not a regularly ordained preacher, is the regular lay reader at St. Luke's Episcopal church. He and a partner own the Tonopah gold mine, which is worth about $20,000,000. So far Mr. Parker has received $1,000,000 or so in cash from the output.

The veneral Bishop Huntington of Syracuse says the men involved in the shipbuilding scandal are, in his opinion, really pagans. "Our educational system is somehow very deficient," he says. "What we need is the education of the moral nature. The conscience of men is not trained in our public schools and great institutions. I say give proportionate attention to the moral life of the student body of our great country."

Ex-Assistant District Attorney Osborne of New York spoke recently of an extremely able argument presented in the course of a recent murder trial by a rising young lawyer. "I don't like his delivery or his style at all," protested an interested and perhaps jealous bystander. "He uses such long sentences." Mr. Osborne turned sharply. "There are just two kinds of people who object to long sentences," he said; "they are criminals and fools."

If all the dressmakers known to exist in America worked 24 hours of each day for a whole year, without stopping for sleep or meals, they would still be able to make only one dress apiece for less than seven-eighths of the women of America.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c, at Lee Beall's Drug Store.

Hundreds of electricians are at this moment striving to construct lamps in which nothing is consumed save the electrical energy applied to them, lamps that have the radiance of the sun and the coldness of the moon.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. He developed a stubborn ulcer yielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and piles, 25c, at Lee Beall's Drug Store.

All new schools in Switzerland have a portion of the ground floor appropriated for baths. Each class bathes about once a fortnight, summer and winter. Soap is used, and a warm bath is followed by a cooler one. Sick children and those having skin diseases are excluded.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Lee Beall.

A novelty in American marine craft is exhibited in a recent patent grant covering the design of a boat, propelled and steered by jets of water. Instead of engines to drive screws and propellers, pumps are suitably located within the hold of the vessel, and each is provided with an intake tube, which runs forward to a point near the bow of the vessel, where there are suitable openings through which the pipes may receive water, the said openings, of course, being arranged below the water line.

Play distinguishes the higher from the lower animals, and it signifies possibility of education. Fishes do not play at all; the lower mammals can hardly be taught to play, and birds are entirely devoid of the instinct. But the kitten and the lamb are essentially playing animals. The human young, however, are the true players, and, in reality, it is play that develops them into manhood.

Not A Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at Lee Beall's, Druggist.
