If you haven't seen the model of the patent gate at this office, call in and inspect it.

A man usually gets the last word in an argument with his wife because she gives it to him.

Sheepmen with their desert arks are on the move these days, and are hauling their supplies to the desert as fast as possible.

The most complete job stock off of the railroad is to be found at The Examiner office. First-class work always, at reasonable prices.

When the recording angel makes his report it will be found that more men are charged with stuffing the ballot box than the contribution box.

A vegetarian preacher in Ohio has been asked to resign his charge for kissing a young lady of his flock. He admits that he kissed the girl, but refuses to resign on the ground that the girl was a peach.

Forestry agent Kent, is slowly but surely wending his way towards us. From what he says, it is hardly probable that any of the land recently withdrawn in this section will be placed in a permanent reserve.—Paisley Post.

Geo. Duke came down from Likely Wednesday. He informs us that three beef buyers had arrived in his section and were looking around among the herds. No offers, however, were made above the prices heretofore paid.—Plaldealer.

J. M. Thompson, the Modoc sheepman has shipped about 8,000 head of mutton and lambs to the lower country markets this fall. Mr. Thompson left last Wednesday for San Francisco where he goes on business connected with his sheep interests.—New Era.

D. C. Slater, who recently sold out the Fall River Tidings and went to San Francisco for his health, died in that city on November 4th. Mr. Slater is well remembered by the writer and many others, as editor of the long since dead Modoc Independent.

The New Era editor, R. L. Sloss, went out with a small party one day last week, and together brought in 190 ducks, and in writing about it says: "And this is no lie." Now, that will do to talk about, but the people up in this section know the Era editor too well to believe any such talks as that. What was the brand of case goods Bro. Sloss?

Among the important business transactions of the county court during this session was the creation of a standing reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of the crime of arson. The several incendiary fires which have occurred in the past two years prompted the court's action which is commendable.—Prineville Journal.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 38tf

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
