LAKEVIEW, OREGON, DEC. 3, 1903.

The czar of Russia is the largest individual land owner. The area of his possessions is greater than that of the republic of France.

Clara Viebig is the most widely read of Germany's women novelists. She is a pitiless realist, and a certain portion of the press affect to deery her.

Kier Hardie is the nearest approach to a republican in the present house of commons since Mr. Chamberlain has abandoned his political creed.

Alexander Blackley, the pastel artist, whose death is announced at the age of 88, was the first artist whose work was reproduced in color in an illustrated newspaper.

Dario Campana, a young Italian of Leghorn, has tried successfully a new system of wireless telegraphy in which the earth is used for the transmission of waves.

Monsignor O'hea of Australia, now nearly 90 years of age, is known on the island as "the sporting prelate." Lucky land speculations many years ago made him one of the richest men in Victoria. He is popular with other denominations besides his own.

Theodore Medad Pomeroy, living in Auburn, N. Y., at the age of 79 years, and a rich banker, was elected speaker of the house to succeed Schuyler Colfax, who resigned the office after his election as vice president. Mr. Pomeroy served as speaker five minutes.

Emperor William buys all his hats, boots, shoes, ties and sticks in Potsdam. His uniforms, ordinary suits, and other wear are made in Berlin, and his measure is taken once a year. The clothes have to fit when sent, as the kaiser, like the kaiserin, is never "tried on."

Miss Alberta Gallatin, who is a daughter of the confederate general Albert Gallatin, has been denied honorary membership in the Virginia Daughters of the Confederacy because she is acting in the play "Ghosts," which the Virginia daughters condemn on moral grounds.

King Edward, when prince of Wales, was asked, according to a late London club story, what he would do should he meet with a sudden reverse of fortune, or if the monarchy were overthrown. The reply credited to the prince is: "Well I think I might support my wife and family by lecturing in the United States on how it feels to be prince of Wales."

Alphabetically considering the following list of "eligibles" in the matrimonial line are in the senatorial circle: Allison of Iowa, Beveridge of Indiana, Clark of Montana, Cockrell of Missouri, Dietrich of Nebraska, Dillingham of Vermont, Frye of Maine, Millard of Nebraska, Mitchell of Oregon, Patterson of Colorado, Pettus of Alabama, Warren of Wyoming. The foregoing are widowers. The bachelors are Kean of New Jersey, Penrose of Pennsylvania and Kittridge of South Dakota.

LITTLE OUTLAYS THAT COUNT.

Shall Wage Earners Secure Choice Pianos By Means Of Eilers Piano House Easy Payment System?

School Teachers, Railway and Dry Goods Clerks, Stenographers, Dress Makers, Milliners, Mechanics and Farmers take Advantage of it.

To any one unfamiliar with our low price, easy payment policy, it would be a matter of no little surprise to find on examining our books the names of scores and scores of people working on comparatively small salaries, who are buying choice pianos—instruments whose names have heretofore always stood for such high prices that the impression very generally prevails they are within the reach only of people of very considerable means. This, thanks to our small profit, easy payment policy is no longer the case.

The great mass of the people of the Northwest are accustomed to good music. Nowhere is choice music so highly appreciated. Our people readily recognize the quality of a piano, and are content with nothing but the best. The piano is therefore, frequently by far the most costly and most highly prized article in the home. And rightly so. Nothing is a better index of culture and refinement in a family than a good piano.

That a great proportion of the homes of the Northwest are supplied with the very best pianos is largely due to the fact that for years there have been placed before buyers by us the very choicest at prices and on terms that anyone can afford. Prices that have enabled them to possess such regal instruments as the great western make, the Kimball of Chicago, the Weber of New York and the Chickering of Boston; the Vose, also of Boston, the Hobart M. Cable, Bush & Gerts, Doll, Haddorff, etc., etc.

The pianos, and they are the finest and most reliable made, are the favorites of the people of the Northwest. They are universally found in our schools and colleges, our lodges and theatres, and in the studios of our leading musicians.

A man makes his purchase, paying all the way from $350 to $750 or more. He then has a piano that will be a source of satisfaction to him for a lifetime. It affords himself and his family the best social and domestic enjoyment, as well as giving to his children opportunity for the very finest musical education, while our system of easy payments enables him to meet his monthly payments without any inconvenience whatever.

Young ladies who are self supporting purchase their pianos in the same manner securing choice and dainty instruments, and while they are making their payments, they are able also, to study music with the best teachers.

In case of sickness or misfortune, all necessary extension of time is cheerfully granted by us.

We are more than glad to have anyone, whether it is with an object of purchasing or not, examine our entire stock, and learn our prices and terms. Catalogs giving all details cheerfully supplied for the asking. Send a postal card. Eilers Piano House, the leading, most popular and reliable piano concern on the coast. Big, busy stores Washington street, corner Park, Portland, Oregon; and also at San Francisco, Cal., Spokane, Wash., and Sacramento, Cal.
