C. S. Palmerlee was over from Dry valley Friday. Jeff Parish was over from the J. J. ranch Thursday. J. C. Bussey, was up from New Pine Creek Friday. Owen McKendree was here from his Lorella ranch Friday. Mrs. T. S. Handley was quite sick last week, but is reported improving at this writing. Robt. Farmer and sister Doary, arrived from Sacramento on the southern stage Thursday night. We understand that S. S. Bayley last week purchased about 400 head of beef at likely for San Francisco butchers.—New Era. The most complete job stock off of the railroad is to be found at The Examiner office. First-class work always, at reasonable prices. ff. John Wendell, the butcher, has moved from his residence on Main street, to a new residence just erected south of C. E. Sherlock's. J. M. Innes, and Jack Kelsay, disposed of 450 head of beef cattle to parties living in Reno Nevada. The cattle were to be delivered this week at Lakeview.—Paisley Post. Charley Bowker died in the county jail at Alturas on Wednesday, Nov. 25th. A drunken spree was too much for him, and he passed away in his cell without the knowledge of anyone. Sim Bayley, an old time Mocker, but now of San Francisco, was a visitor in Alturas this week. Mr. Bayley is looking for beef cattle, and will be in the County several days.—Plaindealer. Says the Cedarville Record: Miss May Yates (nee Lighty) has retired from the Alturas New Era, for some time, having leased her interest in the paper to R. L. Sloss, who is now, "monarch of all he surveys," in the Era plant. The publishers of "Farm Life" give away $32.50 each month to the persons selecting the best advertisement in their columns. You can secure both "Farm Life" and The Examiner one year for only $2.00. Better subscribe or renew today. Oregon papers are still reporting that the story of Lot's wife turning to salt is not improbable, because whenever a pretty girl passes now the men turn to rubber. This story was first published 2000 B. C. A man in the Willamette valley says he has no desire to go to the circus. "I'll stay at home," he says. "My oldest daughter does the kangaroo walk; my second daughter talks like a parrot, my son laughs like a hyena, wife watches me like a hawk, my cook is as cross as a bear and my mother-in-law says I'm an old gorilla. When I go anywhere I want a change." Bro. Sloss of the New Era, promises to send us a photo of the 190 ducks he claims to have killed, with a party of friends, and says, "Please show it to the boys." Of course we will, but we've already heard it hinted that the ducks are decoys, and show just as well in a picture as real ducks. Guess you'll have to send us the ducks Bro. Sloss if you wish to prove your story. A practical woman remarked the other day, says an exchange that the most interesting things in the newspapers are the advertising columns. "Long ago," said she, "I quit buying of those who do not advertise. It always seems to me that the merchant who advertises invites me to trade with him, while the one who does not advertise impresses me with the idea that he doesn't care enough for my trade to ask for it. Then, too I have found that the merchant who advertises has fresher goods, for the reason, I suppose, he sells more."

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S. Ashburnham, Ontario. Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. ASHBURNHAM ONT., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your cough remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsend remedy. Respectfully yours, E. A. LANGFELT, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by Lea Beall
