The Bleieroders are, financially, to Berlin what the Rothschilds are to Paris and London. The women connected with the great financial families of Europe enjoy all the privileges of royalty without any of the responsibilities of the latter. Their work in charities is limited.

Albert Carre of the Paris Opera Comique has begun war on the theater ticket speculators. The fight was brought about by the speculators suing Carre because he refused to accept their tickets at the theater. He has sued them in turn and the chances are favorable he will win his fight.

Representative Bowers of Mississippi is a typical southerner. He was asked recently how he liked his new job of being a congressman. "Better'n a dog loves heaven," was the answer. "What's dog heaven?" Well, "Joe' Slack, down in my district, says dog heaven is where a hound dog thinks there's ponds of potfesser lame rabbits."

The senate committee on interstate commerce, over which Senator Elkins presides, is almost made up of ex-governors. Mr. Cullom of Illinois, Mr. Kean of New Jersey, Mr. Foraker of Ohio, Mr. Tillman of South Carolina, Mr. McLaurin of Mississippi and Mr. Foster of Louisiana have all served one or more terms as governor of the states which they now represent in the senate.

Mark Twain long ago arrived at the conclusion that it is a very serious thing to be a professional humorist. Recently a society youth of the "Willie off the yatch" sort was introduced to the author. "Aw, I say, Mr. Clemens, I think it must be awfully easy to be funny, don't you know?" "It is, for you—unless you try to be," grimly replied the man who has made millions laugh.

Is New York to be a new Jerusalem? That is the opinion of Henry P. Toler, who asserts that the Hebrews are rapidly acquiring the ascendancy in the eastern metropolis. Every fourth man, according to Mr. Toler, is a Jew, and he is firmly of the opinion that the time is not far distant when it will be the new Jerusalem, and he quotes the Bible to prove his assertion.

The president called Congress together in extraordinary session in order that Justice might be done to Cuba. The House promptly did its duty, but the Senate did nothing. All of which goes to show more forcibly than ever that the Senate is not a body representing the people, and is therefore a useless piece of official machinery. When senators are elected by popular vote perhaps the people will be considered occasionally.
