Additional Local

Last Saturday, through Bayley & Maxwell, L. D. Robinson sold to J. C. Oliver 320 acres of land on the west side for $2.50 per acre. The land constitutes Mr. Robinson's homestead and timber culture.

See the beautiful display of dressing cases, ladies wrist and chatelaine bags, buckhorn sets, albums, collar and cuff boxes and hair brushes. Everything in the latest design for Christmas at Beall's Drug Store. 49

Dave Musselman came over from Cedarville last week with his team and returned Monday with his household good from his West Side ranch, and will take up his abode on one of Geo. C. Turner's ranches in Surprise valley.

The thirteen months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Meyer, who live at the head of the valley north of Lakeview, died Sunday morning after a brief illness from a disease of the brain. The infant was buried Monday in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

The fire at Alturas which destroyed $5000 worth of property, is thought to have started from a lamp. The heaviest losers were: R. F. Nichols $3000, insured for $1500. Wm. O'Brien $1500, no insurance. Weaver & Stephens $300, no insurance. G. C. Pope $50, and Dr. A. Gibson $200.

After a month of dry sunny weather which dried up the roads and the water holes on the desert, rain and snow is with us again. The sheep men will again smile as the dry spell caused them to move toward the foothills for water. An inch of snow fell at Juniper mountain last Saturday.

Gossips had a run for their money Tuesday night when the Southern stage came in and two passengers alighted from Alturas and were way-billed as B. S. Chandler and wife, both of Lakeview. Mr. Chandler, when asked about it, denied the allegation. He has passed the four score year mark and his hair is as white as the driven snow, but he feels as young as he did when he was a boy, and the report would not surprise many if it proved true. The lady is Mrs. Leroy, and is probably 35 years old.

A Farewell Party.

Last Friday evening the home of Geo. S. Nickerson in North Lakeview was the scene of much merriment. The party was given by Miss Mabel Nickerson in honor of Miss Ella Jones, who leaves this morning with her mother for Berkeley to spend the winter.

Invitations were issued on Friday, and by 8 o'clock that evening 14 of our young people were present, and proceeded at once to enjoy themselves. Vocal and instrumental music, games and dancing was the order of the evening. Miss Nickerson rendered some very beautiful selections on the piano, and in every way showed her ability as hostess. The young people enjoyed themselves until a late hour when they separated, each one going their respective ways, with hearts filled with kind remembrances toward their young hostess. X

A Tragic Death.

On Wednesday evening of last week, Otto Leonard, met with a tragic death while working with some unbroken horses at his home at Davis Creek. He caught a wild horse and asked his brother Foney to hold it while he mounted without putting on a saddle. The horse began bucking at once and coming to a sudden halt at the end of the rope, both horse and man fell, Otto falling underneath. He was killed instantly.

Otto was well known in Lake county where he has worked a number of years. He leaves a father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Amon Leonard, four sisters and four brothers.

County Clerk Manring returned Monday after a months sojourn on his ranch in Warner valley. As no word had been received from him since he left, grave fears were entertained as to his safety. It was reported a few days before he returned that he had become advance agent for a travelling show, but this he says is not true.

The stores of Lakeview will again close their doors on Sundays after January 1st, which order will last for three or four months, or until the spring rush begins. Few stockmen come to town on Sundays in the winter, and people in close proximity can get the habit of doing their trading Saturdays. Storekeepers like to rest as well as other people.
