THE HALL OF FAME.

Henry Graham Thompson, one of the founders of the Union League club of New York, died recently at his home in Milford, Conn.

Felix Weingartner, the composer and conductor, has announced his engagement to the Baroness Feodora von Dreyfus of Munich.

The breaking of the engagement of Jules Bois and Emma Calve has had the effect of driving the well known psychologist to a monastery.

Lieutenant Governor Guild of Massachusetts has been elected honorary president of the recently organized Lecturers' association of Boston.

Quartermaster J. F. Rice of the United States army states that he has found Indians in Alaska entirely ignorant of the existence of horses.

President Diaz of Mexico has inaugurated the work upon the Pantheon which is intended to be a monument to the illustrious men of his country.

Professor George H. Ashley, professor of biology and geology in the College of Charleston, has resigned to enter the service of the United States geological survey.

The threatened extinction of the old line of Josiah Quincy of Boston has been averted by the birth in Florence, Italy, of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Quincy. The son has been named Josiah.

Clarkson Henry Tredgold, who has come to the front of South African politics as the newly appointed attorney general of southern Rhodesia, was formerly solicitor general at Bulawayo. He has been a lawyer for fourteen years.

The widow of Hector Macdonald and her son have received from the British government the maximum allowances from the government possible in the case of the widow and child of an officer. In addition, an appeal has been issued for funds to enable the boy to continue his education.

James E. Burke, recently chosen mayor of Burlington, Vt., is a blacksmith. When notified that the supreme court had decided his election legal—it had been contested—he was in his shop shoeing a horse. He finished his job before making any reply to the congratulations of his friends.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Wide silk laces for low shoes are finished with silk tassels.

The latest thing in hairdressing is a curled bang under the pompadour roll. This is a green season almost as pronouncedly as it is a white season. All shades of the clear color are worn.

Tiny circular shaped fans are to be had to slip into opera bags. The prettiest of them are of white gauze spangled with gold or silver.

Elbow sleeves, mitts and bracelets go together naturally. The jewelry stores are showing flexible gold bracelets in great variety, many of them beautiful in design and finish.

Some new patent leather belts are perforated invisibly in the back to admit of ventilation, which is very desirable, especially when the belts are worn with golf or other outing dress.

The sailor hat has put in an appearance again this summer. The most attractive have medium wide brims with low, square crowns and are evolved from coarse whole wheat straw plaited perfectly flat.—New York Post.

EDITORIAL FLINGS.

In Servia these days it is difficult to tell vitch is vitch.—Utica Observer.

Don't form your opinion of the Manchurian situation from the foreign dispatches. Watch the mule market.—Atlanta Constitution.

France is not going to stop automobile racing because it does not like the sport, but because it hasn't any population to spare.—Denver Republican.

There does not seem to be any flaw in New Jersey's title to fame. Mosquitoes held up a trolley car in New Brunswick a few days ago. This keeps the record straight.—Philadelphia North American.

The proposal that New York waiters strike for higher wages is met by the fact that wages do not cut much figure with the New York waiter. As for striking for higher tips—well, there are ways!—New York World.

PEOPLE TO AVOID.

The young man who claims to be a cynic.

The woman who keeps "private boarders."

The young wife who refers to herself as "the bride."

The father who has taught his baby to speak a piece.

The girl who says nobody understands her nature.

The mother whose boy is having trouble with his teacher.—Dubuque Telegraph-Herald.

BREVITIES

THE HALL OF FAME.

Rear Admiral Melville, U. S. N., goes on the retired list in August.

Dr. Charles H. Beard of Chicago owns an original Turner picture of the Grand canal, Venice.

Captain Alfred Johnson, who was the first man to cross the ocean in a small boat in 1870, is still living at Gloucester, Mass.

Senator Bailey of Texas is at the Thousand Islands. With him are his wife and two young sons, of whom he is most remarkably proud.

Dr. Andrew Ainslie Common, the well known English astronomer and a past president of the Royal Astronomical society, has just died at Ealing.

Sven Hedin is an accomplished linguist. He speaks Turkish and Mongolian besides his native language and German, French, English and Persian.

Sir Frederick Pollock, the famous English lawyer, will read a paper before the annual meeting of the American Bar association at Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 26.

For the first time in the history of Spain a workingman has been elected a member of the cortes. His name is Jaime Angles. He is a cooper by trade, and he represents Barcelona.

H. R. Sheldon of Middlebury, Vt., owns some interesting war relics in the form of pay rolls used at the time several companies of the soldiers of the war of 1812 were mustered out at Burlington.

John Vaughan, who as a lad of fourteen was a bugler at the battle of Waterloo, is still living at Rotherham, Yorks, England, and despite his 102 years is able to eke out his pension by hawking.

Probably the oldest physician in France is Dr. David, who lives at Montpellier, aged 103. He has been seriously ill twice in his life. At seventy-three he had typhoid fever and at ninety-three pneumonia.

The late Albert M. Knight, former bursar of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, left his books and manuscripts to the public library at Fitzwilliam, N. H., in memory of Jonas Knight, his grandfather.

Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island was scolding a page for carelessness regarding some matter entrusted to his care and threatened to have the lad dismissed. "Gently, Aldrich," said Mr. Gorman of Maryland, "give the boy a show. I often made the same mistake when I was a page, half a century ago. You have no idea what a hard time these boys have at times, with half a dozen senators calling to them at once. If I had been dismissed for such an offense—why, just think, Aldrich, you might not have me for a colleague now." The Rhode Islander by this time was in a better humor and forgave the lad.

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep hours without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Ill.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakened kidneys is necessary in the home where Thedford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Thedford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhoea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.

NO DOCTOR
